

Ike Names Burke New Naval Chief

Passes Up Renaming Carney

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower passed up four-star Adm. Robert B. Carney Wednesday for reappointment to the high command of the Navy. He picked instead Rear Adm. Arleigh A. "31 Knot" Burke, elevating him from far down in the available list of flag officers.

In announcing the choice of a new chief of naval operations, the White House denied there was any connection between the fact that Carney was not picked for another term and the recent linking of his name to a supposedly off-record discussion on war possibility which irked Eisenhower and the State Department.

The action of the administration in reaching down past 92 admirals of various degrees to choose Burke, who was a figure in the Navy-Air Force argument six years ago, and promote him to full admiral rank startled most people in the Pentagon.

However, the selection of the 54-year-old Burke and the decision against renaming 60-year-old Carney was understood to have been under study by a few top-level civilian officials for some time.

Secretary of the Navy Charles S. Thomas and Undersecretary Thomas S. Gates apparently have been scrutinizing a proposal to replace with comparatively young and junior officers the older, senior admirals as their service expires.

Burke got his "31 Knot" nickname for his dashing, high speed destroyer tactics against the Japanese in World War II.

Simultaneously with sending to the Senate the nomination of Burke to succeed Carney, the White House proposed that the present term of Adm. Arthur W. Radford as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and Gen. Nathan F. Twining as Air Force chief of staff be extended two years.

White House Press Secretary James Hagerly said the President wanted it known he thinks Carney has "one of the most distinguished and outstanding records of anyone in the Navy."

GIRL FATALLY HURT BY CAR NEAR QUINCY

QUINCY, Ill. (AP)—An automobile struck and fatally injured Karen Kincherff, 7, Tuesday as she ran across a road in front of her farm home to catch a school bus. She died Tuesday night. She was the eldest of seven children of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kincherff.

Belgrade Prepares For Visit Of Top Reds

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Under a heavy security guard, secret preparations proceeded Wednesday — President Tito's 63rd birthday — for the unprecedented visit of top Soviet leaders to the capital of the one-time Communist heretic.

Soviet Communist party boss Nikita S. Khrushchev, Premier Nikolai A. Bulganin and Vice Premier A. I. Mikoyan were expected with the rest of the Soviet delegation by Thursday.

British Election Campaign Ends On Quiet Note

LONDON (AP)—The British election campaign ended Wednesday night on the same quiet note that prevailed throughout. Hardly an angry word was spoken in the three weeks of campaigning.

The weather man forecast mainly cloudy weather over most of Britain for Thursday's voting. A fine day means a big turnout of voters, and that traditionally favors the Labor party.

All betting odds and polls favored the Conservatives led by Prime Minister Eden. Some astute observers, however, foresaw a close result. A few saw a winning chance for Clement Attlee's socialist Laborites.

Eden, 57, diplomat who took over the Conservative leadership from Sir Winston Churchill two months ago, wound up a nationwide election tour by declaring a Laborite win would bring "more and more nationalization."

Attlee, 72, mild-mannered ex-mayor who bossed the 1945-51 Labor administration, spent his final campaign day door-knocking in the east London district that sends him to Parliament.

London newspapers and indeed most of the nation seemed less concerned with the voting than with a horse race—the Epsom Derby. The race was the main story of all three London evening papers.

ESTIMATE 360 DEATHS IN TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS OVER 3-DAY WEEKEND

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Safety Council Wednesday estimates 360 Americans may be killed in traffic accidents during the three-day Memorial Day weekend.

That would be close to the record for the holiday. The traffic toll in 1952 was 363. Last year it was 362. The holiday period in both of those years covered three days.

The holiday weekend this year, in the Council's reckoning, runs from 6 p. m. Friday to midnight Monday.

It is said that the mullet is the only fish rich enough to fry in its own fat.

Correspondents by the score, who moved into Belgrade for the momentous meeting of the former enemies, were unable even to learn where the Yugoslavs and Russians will meet.

The semi-official Yugopress Agency reported an appeal probably will be made to the people of Belgrade to line the streets along which the Soviet delegation will be escorted from the airport.

The news agency said the Socialist Alliance of Working People, the front dominated by the Communists which is this country's only political party, will urge the people to show they support a "policy of peace and equal cooperation among nations." The appeal, it added, is to stress that talks between the Yugoslav and Soviet leaders will be significant for the strengthening of relations between the two countries and for "lessening of tension" in this part of the world.

President Tito received birthday greetings from all parts of Yugoslavia — and from Moscow. Moscow's greetings, the first such acknowledgment of Tito's birthday in seven years, point up the new recognition of Tito as a leading European statesman after years of bitter denunciation from the east.

Hoover Group Scores Waste In U.S. Storage Space

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Hoover Commission Wednesday called for the elimination of "duplication and waste" in the use of government warehouse and storage space which, it said, occupies an area twice the size of Manhattan Island.

The 11th report of the Reorganization Commission, headed by former President Herbert Hoover, said the Defense Department has 100 million square feet of storage "not listed on the operating records."

The report "commended" to Congress and the executive agencies measures which it estimated would eliminate 172 million square feet of federal warehousing at a saving of 288 million dollars annually.

The recommendations were drafted by a special task force headed by Clifford E. Hicks, President of the New York Dock Co. and New York Dock Railway.

The recommendations proposed that:

Secretary of Defense Wilson "establish and exercise positive control" over the storage facilities of all three branches of the military establishment.

Both military and civilian agencies should make the greatest practicable use of commercial storage facilities.

Lutherans Ordain Five To Ministry

DIXON, Ill. (AP)—Five men were ordained to the ministry Wednesday night at a meeting of the Illinois Synod of the United Lutheran Church in America. They are:

Roger H. Hansen, Rockford; Karl F. Kuskavics, Kalamazoo, Mich., a displaced person from Latvia; Linwood L. Monte, Monroeville, Wis.; James J. White, Peoria; and Phillip E. Snobeeck, Fergus Falls, Minn.

The synod also elected and re-elected board and committee members. New members are: Jasper Berhenke, Lena; and Philip Lottich, Chicago, to the board of ministerial education.

The Rev. Luther H. Cooperrider, Mount Morris, to the board of home missions.

Orville Fell, Oregon, to the board of the Nachusa Lutheran Children's Home.

The Rev. John Cooperrider, Chicago, to the Lutheran Home Finding Society of Illinois.

The Rev. Richard E. Boye, Lena; E. A. Anderson, Washington, Ill.; Harry Carlson, Rockford; Fred Schaeffe, Wilmette; and Kurt Weber, Chicago, to the board of the United Lutheran Social Mission Society of Illinois.

Asks Senate Probe Of Supreme Court's Segregation Decision

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Eastland (D-Miss) Wednesday asked a Senate investigation of the Supreme Court's decision that race segregation in the public schools is unconstitutional.

Eastland said that Communist-front groups apparently had wielded influence on authorities cited by the court. He introduced a resolution proposing a Senate investigation.

Eastland said the court's unanimous decision of last May was "based solely and alone on psychological, sociological, and anthropological consideration" and not on law.

The preamble of Eastland's resolution said "a provisional investigation of the authorities upon which the Supreme Court relied reveals to a shocking degree their connection with and participation in the world-wide Communist conspiracy."

The resolution would direct the Senate Judiciary Committee "to investigate the extent and degree of participation by individuals and groups identified with Communist conspiracy, Communist-front organizations, and alien ideologies in the formation of the 'modern scientific authority' upon which the Supreme Court relied in the school segregation cases."

Women's Clubs Approve Teaching Sex In Schools

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The General Federation of Women's Clubs Wednesday adopted a resolution approving education about sex—described delicately as "teaching in family living and responsibility"—in schools for youngsters and potential teachers.

The Federation rejected another major resolution calling for granting 18-year-olds the right to vote in elections.

The recommendation on sex education called on the Federation's 15,500 member clubs to urge that the course be taught in schools as a unit toward graduation. The convention struck out a provision that such a course should be necessary for graduation, and also changed the phrasing to make it apply to "schools" generally, rather than "secondary schools" as in the original wording.

This prompted some lobby discussion later among delegates as to whether 6-year-olds in elementary school should be taught "the facts of life."

As adopted by the federation, the resolution says the need for such teaching is based on a feeling that "many marriages which might have developed successfully, have ended unhappily because of inability to deal constructively with problems of adjustment."

Club members were urged to encourage churches of all denominations to give information on successful family living to couples contemplating marriage.

The resolution recommending that the voting age be lowered from 21 to 18 years to encourage youth participation in community and civic affairs was beaten by a close voice vote after lengthy discussions.

SOLONS' VOTE ON IKE'S HIGHWAY BILL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Here's how these Midwestern senators voted Wednesday as the Senate defeated 60 to 31 President Eisenhower's highway bill, offered as a substitute for a Democratic-sponsored measure:

Illinois: Dirksen (R) for; Douglas (D) against.

Indiana: Jenner (R) against; Capelhart (R) for.

Wisconsin: McCarthy (R) announced for; Wiley (R) absent or not voting.

Hennings (D) against; D. against.

Iowa: Hickenlooper (R) for; D. against.

No Threat Of Split In PTA Congress, Mrs. Leonard Says

CHICAGO (AP)—The retiring president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers asserted Wednesday there is no threat of a split in the organization over legislative policy.

Mrs. Newton P. Leonard of Providence, R. I., asked at a news conference:

"How can there be a splinter group among people who love children?"

She was commenting on a telegram from Indianapolis signed by five persons who described themselves as "The Indiana PTA Members Study Group on Federal Aid to Education."

Indiana in the last few years has rejected such federal aid.

The Indiana group said there was growing dissatisfaction among many local PTA units, and members with the national group's "huge, all embracing, blank-check legislative program."

They called for a reassessment of legislative principles looking to a "drastic revision of the program with deletion of controversial political philosophies such as federal aid to education."

Mrs. Leonard said the national organization does not favor federal aid as "a blanket policy." She added:

"In this emergency we feel we must get school rooms for children and we will accept federal aid if it meets our requirements for maximum local control. But it must be channeled through state departments of education and with minimum federal control."

Mrs. Leonard said she would turn the telegram over to her successor, Mrs. Rollin Brown of Los Angeles.

Senate Rejects Ike's Road Plan, Passes Demo Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Wednesday night passed the Democratic bill calling for a five-year, 18-billion-dollar highway building program after decisively rejecting President Eisenhower's 10-year road plan.

Passage was on a vote.

The measure now goes to the House where the administration has higher hopes of winning approval of its plan, which proposes a controversial bond issue to help finance construction.

The Senate refused to accept the President's proposal by a 60-31 vote during the long day of debate which preceded final passage of the bill sponsored by Sen. Gore (D-Tenn).

It also beat back 50 to 39 a move on which Republicans had pinned most of their hopes—an effort to shelve the Gore bill by sending it back to the Public Works Committee while the House works on the legislation. Not a single Democrat went along with the motion to recommit. Voting against it were 46 Democrats and 4 Republicans.

Antipolio Program Hits More Snags

Effects Of 1953 Drivers' License Act Pointed Out

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter said Wednesday the effect of the 1953 Drivers' License Act in getting careless and incompetent drivers off the highways will become increasingly evident in the months ahead.

He spoke before a traffic conference sponsored by the University of Illinois and the American Bar Assn.

Carpenter explained that some features of the strict new statute required a period of time to become fully operative.

He mentioned provisions for drivers license suspensions and revocations in cases where a motorist accumulates three convictions for moving traffic violations within a year, and where a record is built up that shows habitual negligence or recklessness behind the wheel.

The law now has been in effect long enough for some drivers to compile records of carelessness and incompetence and the results will be reflected in an announcement of revocations and suspensions soon to be made, Carpenter said.

"This is the kind of progress we all had in mind when the new Drivers' License Law was written," he added.

Gov. Stratton told the conference traffic safety is one of the chief problems confronting the state.

He said a proposed speed limit bill pending before the General Assembly and a proposal to add 100 men to the state highway police force promise to make important contributions to a solution.

Husband Advises Spouse Of New PTA President

CHICAGO (AP)—The husband of the retiring president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers Wednesday offered this brief bit of advice to the husband of the incoming president:

"If you can't cook, learn! And get some shirts you can wash out in the bathtub where they will dry out overnight—you'll need them!"

Newton P. Leonard, 61, a high school vocational guidance counselor in Providence, R.I., said in an interview that Rollin Brown of Los Angeles will have little time for cooking and housekeeping in her new position as national president of the PTA.

Leonard said that in the three years his wife, Lucille, has been president he did not miss a single meal—even though Mrs. Leonard was never home for more than three days at a time.

"I learned to do a little cooking when I was a boy. It came in handy," Leonard said.

He said when his wife came home from a PTA jaunt she usually was so tired out he just went ahead and prepared the dinner. Mrs. Leonard took over the cooking when she rested up.

One Maker Balks At New Production Rules

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new cloud of uncertainty settled over the antipolio campaign Tuesday night as at least one big maker of Salk vaccine balked at new production rules laid down by the government.

Homer C. Fritsch, executive vice president of Parke, Davis & Co., Detroit, told reporters the revised standards for manufacture and testing of the vaccine were not acceptable to him "as presently written," and that he believed the five other licensed manufacturers felt the same way.

"That is why the meeting is breaking up for Wednesday," Fritsch said.

The U. S. Public Health Service had called the manufacturers' representatives together to lay the new standards before them as a first step toward resumption of the antipolio campaign on a national scale.

Without disclosing details of the new standards, a government announcement said they would be "required" of all manufacturers whose product was to be cleared for the inoculation program.

Fritsch reported, however, they had been presented to the manufacturers as "tentative." He said there would be a further discussion of the question with Public Health authorities Thursday.

Asked about the tentative quality of the standards, a Public Health Service press officer commented that "The degree to which they can be put into practice is not at the point of our saying there are certain changes on which we insist—do it or don't do it."

The government also announced Wednesday it had set up a watchdog committee of scientists to review production methods in all licensed pharmaceutical houses and examine government testing procedures.

When E. N. Beesley, president of Eli Lilly & Co., Indianapolis, was asked if the new standards were acceptable to him, he replied, "No comment."

As the watchdog group was being organized, Rep. Klein (D-N.Y.), a member of the House Commerce Committee, demanded an investigation of a rumor that "a very prominent politician" in California had brought pressure on Secretary of Welfare Affairs to license Cutter Laboratories of Berkeley, Calif., as a vaccine maker.

Vice President Nixon, whose name was mentioned in the rumor, denied he had any contact with Mrs. Hobby's department or any vaccine maker in connection with the Salk preparation.

Dr. Jonas Salk of the University of Pittsburgh, developer of the vaccine, and six other medical experts were named to the watchdog committee. The Public Health Service said they will "recommend action on all lots of vaccine already produced but not yet released and all lots of the vaccine which will be produced in the future."

Members of the new watchdog committee, in addition to Salk, are Dr. Thomas Francis Jr. of the University of Michigan; Dr. David Bodian of Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore; Dr. Joseph Smadel of the Walter Reed Army Medical Center, Washington; Dr. James Shannon, associated director of the National Institutes of Health and Dr. William Workman, chief of the Laboratory of Biologics Control at the Institutes.

U. S. Must Not Mistake False 'Dawn' For Real, Dulles Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles said Wednesday the Russians seem to be reversing their tactics in some important ways, but America must be careful not to mistake any "false dawn" for the real dawn.

Dulles' remark before the House Foreign Affairs Committee recalled President Eisenhower's comment of May 17:

"We will stay strong and we will stay vigilant, but we are not going to extinguish the hope that a new dawn may be coming even if the sun rises very, very slowly."

Dulles went before the committee Wednesday to urge support for the Administration's 3½-billion-dollar foreign aid program.

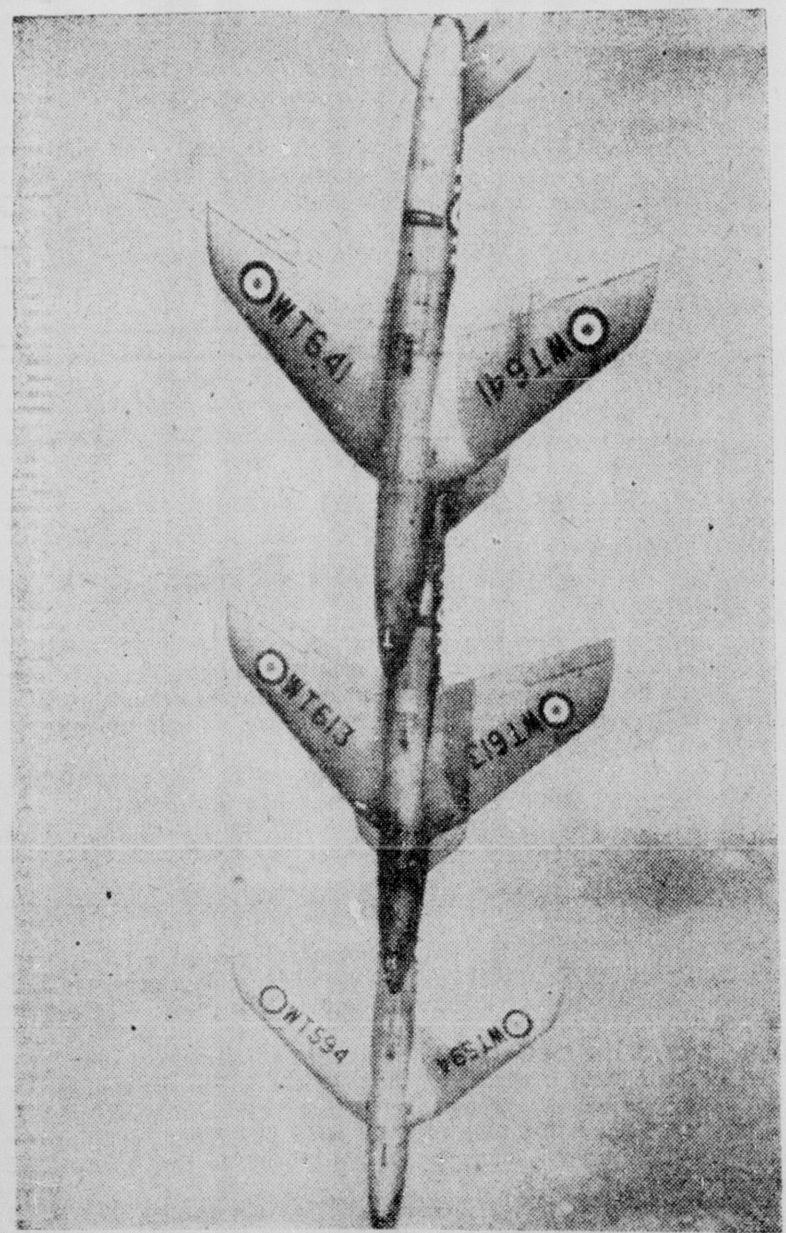

He was asked by Chairman Richards (D-SC) whether he thinks anything will come out of this summer's projected Big Four meeting that would make the foreign aid appropriations unnecessary.

Dulles said he sees no such prospect and, in response to another question, said he thinks it will be to the interest of America to continue its aid programs for several years at least.

Dulles also commented that reports from Paris that the Big Four meeting is set for July 18-21 at Lausanne, Switzerland, are "extremely premature and inaccurate."

On Russia, Dulles said the Soviets have recently demonstrated four examples of a "striking reversal" of policy: agreement on a peace treaty for Austria, a decision to send a top delegation to Yugoslavia despite Marshal Tito's long defiance of Moscow, a new stand on disarmament and apparent willingness to hold a Big Four meeting at the highest levels.

"No one can be confident as to the meaning of these four reversals," the secretary said, although he suggested it may be that the Russians "realize that the free world is in fact 'strong' and that they do have to give up some of the courses they once selected."

BRITAIN MUST CHOOSE

In a few days British voters will go to the polls to choose their government for the next five years. Recent reports suggest that the outcome may be closer than was thought likely at the start.

The practiced observers believe the ruling Conservatives will win. But they feel that the margin of triumph over the rival Labor party will be fairly slim, about like the winning edge in October, 1951.

When it first became apparent that a spring election might be called, forecasters spoke freely of an easy Conservative victory. Their reasons were the Conservatives' success in lifting Britain to record levels of prosperity, and the Labor party's deep internal split.

Those things have not changed materially. The latest opinion polls, however, have indicated a very close popular division between the two parties. It will be recalled that in 1951, though the Conservatives gained a House of Commons majority, their total vote was less than Labor's.

Add to this the fact that this is the first time in many years that the Conservatives have gone to the electorate without Sir Winston Churchill as their leader. Prime Minister Eden is well liked, but he has never caught the public imagination as did his illustrious predecessor.

Furthermore, as such expert analyzers of the British mood as Barbara Ward point out, Britons are not necessarily disposed to vote Conservative simply to express gratitude for prosperity. Their deeper concern today is the avoidance of war.

Sensing this, Sir Anthony has gone out of his way to assure the nation he is as willing as his Labor opponents to sit down with Russian leaders in any conference that might hold genuine hopes for peace.

The ruling party presents no ready targets. It has steered clear of stand-pattism, has offered forward looking welfare plans, and has fostered growth in the country's economy. Its platform calls for more of the same.

On the other hand, no patches can conceal Labor's split. Leftwing leader Aneurin Bevan is basically as irresponsible and unmanageable as ever. Voters must wonder how a party can govern the country when it cannot govern itself.

Labor's "program" is a faded copy of the now outworn socialist doctrines. Leaders groping for new policy lines have not found them.

The party's one real hope is that it might make hay by playing on the average Britisher's abiding fear of war and especially of the hydrogen bomb. Its platform stressed these issues. And here Bevan's ranting anti-Americanism could make impact.

But if the Labor party did win, it would suggest to outsiders that Britons had let their emotions rule. For Labor has no real foreign policy alternative, either.

It is the Conservatives who have the ideas and the energy in 1955. On May 26 the world will see whether this is what the British electorate wants.

The World Today

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — One lesson seems clear from recent political campaigns and elections in this country and Britain: when people have food and job they are not much in the mood for rocking the boat.

Differences between the politicians tend to narrow because extreme proposals, attractive in crisis or depression, have less appeal in time of prosperity.

This probably accounts for the slight margins by which political parties in the United States and Britain have won victories in recent years.

In Britain's elections Thursday the Conservatives, according to the polls, should win a majority again in the House of Commons and, through that, control of the government for another five years.

They beat the Socialist Laborites in 1951 by a tiny margin. If it's bigger this time, it may be due more to the split in the Labor party itself than to radical differences between Conservatives and Laborites.

That split alone, long obvious, might be enough to make the British voters shy away from the Laborites since they wouldn't know what to expect: a left wing led by Aneurin Bevan or the Socialists of center or right under Clement Attlee.

For 20 years in this country the Republicans condemned the Democrats' New Deal and "Fair Deal" as "leading down the road to socialism." But since their 1952 victory the Republicans have wiped out none of the Democrats' basic social legislation.

The British Conservatives, since winning control of their government in 1951, have repealed only a few pieces of the Socialist program put on the books by the Laborites, while they held power from 1945 to 1951.

In the depths of the depression of the 1930s the Democrats, under the banner of Franklin D. Roosevelt and his New Deal, which promised sweeping remedies, won by big majorities. After the war, with the country moving apparently felt no need for sharp changes.

The election returns showed how the gap between Democrats and Republicans had narrowed. The Republicans won Congress in 1945. The Democrats won in 1948 and 1950 and lost in 1952. The margins in those elections were not sweeping.

That the country didn't seem much to choose between the parties themselves was evident in 1952 when President Eisenhower won overwhelmingly but his Republicans won Congress by only a squeak.

Again, the Democrats barely edged into control of Congress in 1954. In none of the elections since the war has either party offered the voters any radical variety in the way of a program.

The Laborites, with their promises of broad socialization, won control of the British government in 1945. That was a time of stress for Britons; they were broke, on rations, under heavy restrictions, and burdened with taxes.

But by 1951, when the Conservatives won, Britain was getting back on its economic feet. Employment was increasing. And as voters got money in their pockets again they apparently felt less urge for social revolution, even though peaceful.

The Conservatives, however, won control of Commons in 1951 by only 19 seats. There was no basic difference between Conservatives and Laborites then on foreign affairs, nor is there now.

And in this election, in a fairly prosperous Britain, the Laborites' talk of domestic change is milder than in previous years. In foreign affairs the Laborites, who went along with the Conservatives, don't have much of a talking point.

Epidemic Diarrhea of Infants Is Probably a Virus Infection

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

Every once in a while during recent years there have been serious outbreaks of a highly fatal diarrhea in new-born infants which has caused great trouble to the nurseries of maternity hospitals. Attempts to find the cause have not been particularly successful.

It is probable, however, that epidemic diarrhea of infants is a virus infection which has not yet been isolated and which is too small to see by ordinary means. One or more germs are often present also.

As a rule the infant who is stricken appears to be healthy and thriving; suddenly the child becomes drowsy and if awakened makes a short weak cry. The temperature is not usually high, generally being below 100.

At about the same time or within a few hours, the baby begins to have loose watery, yellowish bowel movements, without any obvious mucus, blood or pus. These watery movements come more and more frequently.

ESPECIALLY ALARMING is the loss of weight in these small infants, which may be as much as a pound within the first day. (This is sometimes one-sixth of the total weight.)

After a short time the baby no longer looks healthy but shows signs of having insufficient fluid in the system and may look very ill indeed.

In severe cases a baby may die from this disease within a day or two. As a rule the disease lasts about a week, only about half recover.

Children over four weeks old and grownups do not seem to catch it. Infants who have gone home after exposure can develop the condition at home.

Once a case develops in a nursery, it spreads rapidly to the infants in adjoining bassinets. Most of those who are likely to catch the disease do so from two to six days after exposure.

WHEN EPIDEMIC diarrhea breaks out in a hospital nursery, preventive measures have to be begun at once. The babies who are well, but in the nursery at the time, also have to be isolated and observed closely for any signs of the disease.

Visitors, of course, must be excluded during such periods not only from the babies who have become ill but also from those who were exposed. New babies must not be admitted to the nursery.

Treatment has been disappointing. No definite cure has been discovered and so far the most important measure seems to be to give the infant feedings of mother's milk if at all possible.

There have been favorable reports from a few of the antibiotics and a good treatment may be found at any time.

ALL OF THOSE who have studied this subject seem agreed that the strictest precautions to avoid unnecessary traffic by visitors and others near the nursery or the maternity floors is necessary if epidemic diarrhea of the newborn is to be promptly controlled.

Apparently fewer outbreaks of epidemic diarrhea of the newborn have been occurring lately than 10 or 12 years ago, but health officials must be on guard constantly whenever they do happen.

Advocates of Hells Canyon Project Face Time Shortage

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The 30 U. S. senators who favor federal government construction of a single, high, $388,000,000 public power dam at Hells Canyon on the Snake River between Oregon and Idaho think they have one, last, three months' chance to put it over.

They have been casting fishy eyes on Federal Power Commission Examiner William J. Costello's recent order which would authorize Idaho Power Co. to build a low, $90,000,000 dam at Brownlee site above Hells Canyon. The company's application to build two other low dams at Oxbow and Hells Canyon—to cost an additional $100,000,000—was denied.

Costello has recommended that opponents of his order be given three months in which to prepare their case before final hearing by the full Federal Power Commission.

There are about three months left in the present session of Congress. If the 30 senators—mostly Democrats led by Oregon Senators Wayne Morse and Richard Neuberger—can pull over their high dam bill in this time, they can stop the low dams. Otherwise the public power advocates will have to take their case to court and delay action for a new try after 1956.

TO THEIR SURPRISE AND DISMAY, advocates of the high dam have found that Costello's provisional order contains many arguments in favor of the high dam.

At one point in his 75-page bolddown of over 20,000 pages of testimony in hearings that began over two years ago, Costello writes: "... the facts seem to point to the inescapable conclusion that with the marked and substantial advantage of the government's credit, the high dam would be dollar for dollar the better investment and the more nearly ideal development of the Middle Snake."

In spite of this, Costello recommended that the one, low, Idaho Power Co. dam be licensed for construction.

He reached this conclusion on the basis of what is being interpreted as a purely political judgment. In brief it is that the Hells Canyon high dam proposal has already been presented to Congress in 1950, 1951 and 1953 and been turned down each time.

IN THE PREVIOUS ADMINISTRATION, Secretary of Interior Oscar Chapman supported the project, originally put forward by Army Corps of Engineers in 1947. In the present administration, Secretary of Interior Douglas McKay has withdrawn government support.

On the economic aspect of the case, the Costello provisional order reports that for the Idaho Power Co. Brownlee dam, power cost would be 7.6 mills per kilowatt hour.

For the three low dams the power cost would be 6.6 mills per kWh. On these facts Costello comments:

"When one realizes that the Bonneville Power Administration sells large amounts of firm power at about 2.0 mills per kWh, it is difficult to see where in the northwest power will be salable at triple the Bonneville rate."

IT WAS APPARENTLY FOR THIS reason that Costello disapproved the three-dam plan. He approved only the Brownlee project which will produce power for sale in the Idaho Power Co.'s own territory.

"The really paradoxical aspect of the whole matter," comments Costello, "is that there is a crying need for firm power additions in the northwest in view of the lagging program of development by the federal government and the steady growing loads." The high dam would furnish more surplus power to the Bonneville grid.

The big obstacle which the high dam has to overcome is that it is a huge public power project which would require a tremendous outlay of the taxpayers' money. Because of the government's lower interest rates, lower taxes and no need to show a profit, it freezes out private enterprise competition.

In Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Randolph Scott cleaned out another town this week. He brought the outlaws to justice and convinced the local citizens they had to take a stand against lawlessness.

This time he's "Marshal of Medicine Bend."

In the past he has been the "Bounty Hunter," "Fighting Man of the Plains," "Man in the Saddle," "Man Behind the Gun," "Ne-vadan" and "Frontier Marshal."

He has cleaned out "Abilene Town," "Badman's Territory," "Train Street," "Albuquerque," "Coroner's Creek," "Walking Hills," "Santa Fe," "Forth Worth" and "Carson City."

Randolph Scott is the perfect Western hero. He is tall and lean, with a leather-faced handsomeness and an ability to command respect with his tight-mouthed orders.

He is, in fact, just about the only Western hero who can make a living — and a mighty handsome one — from making movies for theaters.

Cowboys like Roy Rogers, Gen. Autry and Bill Boyd have loped off to hunt the television gold. Only Scott remains on the movie range.

Legends have related that he is sparse of words, but actually the Virginia-born actor can wax loquacious on matters that interest him. One such is the movie business. After he turned over his marshal's badge to a citizen of Medicine Bend in a scene, he delivered some observations on film matters.

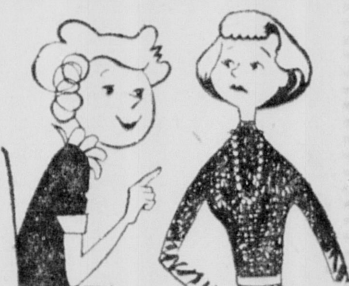

"There's no doubt that television has cut into our business," he said. "We used to count on 2½ or 3 million or more world-wide. But you can't expect that nowadays."

"That little monster (TV) has brought a lot of changes in the picture business. A friend of mine, a big theater chain operator told me that the chains aren't interested in run-of-the-mill pictures any more. They want attractions that will bring people away from their TV sets."

Scott has managed to continue a money-maker because his films are several cuts above what used to be called the program Western.

Why hasn't Randy gone on TV? "Because I'm tied up with film commitments for the next five years," he answered. "By that time, I'll be too broken down for TV or anything else."

SO THEY SAY

History shows that the surrender of territory in itself never satisfied an aggressor; it only increases his appetite.

—Vice President Nixon.

The German people have paid harshly for the horrors which were committed in their name by blind and evil leadership. These sufferings have transformed and purified the German nation.

—West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

A nation disarmed will lose quickly its will to fight. We have the power to so disarm any enemy nation. And it is the very existence of this power that will probably make it unnecessary for us to apply it.

5 Die As Storms Hit Wide Areas Of Midwest, South

By The Associated Press
Damaging storms which struck wide areas in the Midwest and South ended during the night but thunderstorms and rain hit most of the eastern third of the nation. The stormy weather was blamed for at least five deaths. Two young boys and a man suffered fatal injuries in Augusta, Ga., when a 100-foot section of a concrete wall at the city's baseball park collapsed under heavy winds.

A father and son were killed by lightning near Lansing, Mich., during a severe rainstorm. Tornado winds whipped many areas while the Weather Bureau reported funnel clouds aloft in the southern Great Lakes region and the lower Mississippi Valley. Heavy rainfall Tuesday was in the Great Lakes area, with nearly 11 inches in Milwaukee and Chicago. Many streets in Chicago were flooded.

However, Louisville reported nearly 2 inches of rain as the stormy weather moved eastward. Showers and thundershowers also continued during the night in the plains across the northern Rockies and into the western plateau region.

Temperatures dropped sharply after the storm struck Midwest areas, as much as 20 degrees in one hour in Chicago, and from a high of 84 Tuesday to 48 early today.

PATTERSON GRADE PUPILS TOUR PLANT OF JOURNAL COURIER

Seventeen members of the Patterson school fifth and sixth grades toured the Journal Courier newspaper plant Tuesday afternoon in company with their teacher, Miss Ella Black. They spent the day visiting places of interest in Jacksonville, and enjoyed a picnic at Nichols park.

The school bus was driven by Leslie Sorrells. The Patterson school will close for the season May 31.

Hit Enroute To School Bus; Girl Dies In Hospital

PITTSFIELD, Ill. — Karen Ann Kinschiff, 7 years old, died at 11 o'clock Tuesday night in the Pike County hospital at Louisiana, Mo., from injuries she sustained when struck by a car at Pleasant Hill, as she crossed a street to board a school bus.

It was reported that the car was driven by Leo Folles of the Pleasant Hill community, who stopped and rendered assistance.

The accident occurred at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. The girl's death was due to skull fractures.

She was the daughter of John E. and Wanda King Kinschiff, and was born Dec. 5, 1947, near Pleasant Hill. Besides her parents she is survived by two sisters and four brothers, Linda Sue, Janet Lynn, John, James, Paul, and Richard Kinschiff.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Friday (Standard Time) at St. Agnes church in Bellevue, Calhoun county. Burial will be made in Crescent Heights cemetery.

Chief Says Gas Must Be Sold In Red Metal Cans

An increase in the number of gasoline fires throughout Illinois this spring brought a warning from Fire Chief Howard Reynolds here Thursday that the state law requiring red metal containers will be strictly enforced.

Reynolds said he is making personal visits to all service stations to call attention of the operators to the law. In a number of instances dealers have refused to sell gasoline and naphtha in containers that do not comply with the law. Reynolds pointed to the state law which states that "all receptacles used for the keeping or storing of gasoline, benzine or benzol shall be painted red and no other liquids shall be placed in such red containers." The law also provides that each container must be marked "Gasoline" in plain letters.

The fire chief said that with the increased use of power lawn mowers and other power equipment, more persons are storing gasoline in homes and garages. The proper way to store gasoline, he said, is in a red can which is always placed in a well ventilated area, away from any flame or spark.

Kresge Dollar Store Employes Of 1939 Gather

A group of employees during the year 1939 at the Kresge Dollar store enjoyed a fried chicken dinner Monday evening at the Southern Air. Two of the group are still employed at the store, Helene Gilpin and Irene Garner. Others present were Marilla Suter, Alice Dobson, Dorothy Hodgson, Dora Eldridge, Elizabeth Cavanaugh, Elsie McDonald and Irene Jones.

A very enjoyable time was had reminiscing. Letters were read from R. W. Smith, former store manager and R. C. Wade, a former assistant manager at the store and now a district superintendent for Kresge. Other communications were received from Opal Cox Cragin, Joplin, Mo.; Emilene Jewsbury Williams at Tampa, Fla.; Nancy Lindley of Chicago and Helen Niday of Alton.

KEEPS PEACE IN NEW GARBAGE CAN

DETROIT (AP) — Edward A. O'Brien objected at first when Detroit's Department of Public Works Commission notified him that as a homeowner he'd have to comply with city regulations and buy a garbage can.

O'Brien explained that he's a bachelor and lives alone. He eats all his meals out. He never uses a garbage can.

But the commission held firm, so O'Brien bought a garbage can and stood it in the front window for city officials to see.

"I like everyone to be happy," he said.

I.S.D. Girls Going To Leadership Camp

Two students at the Illinois School for the Deaf, Patricia Naffziger (left) of Atlanta, Ill., and Ausma Smits of Hull, Ill., will attend the Northern Leadership Camp of the Illinois League of High School Girls Athletic Associations, at Conference Point, Williams Bay, Wis., June 12 to 19.

Attending the camp will be over 200 girls from high schools in Northern Illinois.

Patricia Naffziger, who receives her diploma at I.S.D. Thursday, has been outstanding in G.A.A. work the past two years, receiving her State Award and other honors.

Ausma Smits is a native of Latvia, having come to the United States in 1950. She enrolled at I.S.D. in 1951 and will be a Junior next fall. She joined the G.A.A. in 1953.

2 Missing Since Shooting Episode Sought In Denver

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (AP) — Two former associates of ex-convict Frank (Buster) Wortman, missing since a gangland-style shooting here a week ago, were sought in Denver today for questioning.

Chief Deputy Sheriff Clifford Flood of St. Clair County said the Civil Aeronautics Authority had traced to Russell, Kan., an airplane believed to have been used by Birney T. (Chick) Havey Jr. and Kenneth Mueller in a flight from here after their Cadillac cars had been riddled with bullets.

Mueller is known to have been wounded in the shoulder and face in a shooting which police say may have resulted from Mueller failing to pay gambling debts. Police found racing forms and telephone equipment in his apartment earlier during a raid.

Flood said that he had learned the plane, bearing the same registration number as Havey's, had returned at Russell last Sunday and then departed after the pilot gave Denver as his destination. Flood said he had asked Denver police to be on the lookout for the two men.

Police said another theory advanced for the shooting was the possibility that Havey and Mueller had been trying to set up their own racing news service here in competition with Wortman's. The two were associated with Wortman until last Jan. 1 when Havey and Wortman are reported to have fallen out.

LEAVES ESTATE TO HIS HOME COUNTRY

ELIZABETHTOWN, Ky. (AP) — Even in death H. B. Fife remembered the people who kept him in office 40 years.

His estate, valued at more than $250,000, will go to Hardin County, where he served as judge, magistrate, sheriff and deputy sheriff.

The will stipulates that income from the estate should go for road building, construction of an airport, a county jail or courthouse. The principal must be held in trust by the county.

Fife, who died May 15 at 82, never married. He had only one known survivor, a niece living in New York City.

Herold Swisher On Presbyterian U. S. Committee

Herold A. Swisher, Jr., an officer of First Presbyterian church in Jacksonville, has been elected to the standing committee on Church Polity of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A. Mr. Swisher is one of 800 commissioners at the 167th General Assembly of the Presbyterian church, meeting this week in Los Angeles, Calif.

The committee on Church Polity deals with matters of church government and discipline and makes recommendations in this field to the General Assembly. The Assembly is the highest court of the church, carrying on legislative and judicial functions for the church throughout the nation and for its world wide missionary program.

Mr. Swisher, a district manager for Union Central Life Insurance Company, is one of four commissioners from Springfield Presbytery, the others being the Rev. Paul Lundell, pastor of Central Presbyterian Church in Petersburg and moderator of Springfield Presbytery; Dr. Jay Logan, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Decatur; and Robert Black of Macon, Ill.

Mr. Swisher wrote that the Assembly has faced realistically the issue of Communism in the world, and that both Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, Stated Clerk of the Presbyterian Church, and Dr. Charles T. Leber, general secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, proclaimed that the Christian church is ready to meet the challenge, and professed face that the church will not only endure, but that, in the words of Dr. Blake, "there is a spiritual revolution surging through the churches in the world."

The Board of National Missions, Mr. Swisher reported, has been able to increase national missionaries salaries this year because of increased giving to missions on the part of Presbyterians throughout the nation. Mr. Swisher also attended the pre-assembly Conference on Evangelism, held at Emmanuel Presbyterian Church in Los Angeles last week.

Retired Officer's 'Crew' Mutinies In 'Tight Run Ship'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Retired Navy officer Charles B. Day may have run a "tight ship" at his home but the crew finally mutinied.

The "crew," Day's wife Loretta, won a Superior Court divorce Tuesday. She testified before Judge Louis H. Burke that Day, a former lieutenant commander, insisted the home be run like a ship. She said: "Day called his den 'officers' quarters' and she could not enter when red, white and blue pennants were flying."

He insisted on "a clean sweep down fore and aft."

In the settlement Mrs. Day was awarded the couple's furniture, a car and $1,800 as her share in community property. Day, who had also asked for a divorce, was awarded the family home.

Mrs. Day, who is 53, had been married to the Navy man for 27 years.

ARGENTINA ARRESTS PRIESTS

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Fifty-three priests have been arrested since a controversy between the Peron government and the Roman Catholic Church began six months ago. The Rev. Sgt. First Class Edward Dawdy, home on leave from Augsburg, Germany where he has spent three years, spoke before an assembly of the third and fourth grades of Washington school held in Miss Hopkins' room Monday afternoon.

Sgt. Dawdy told the children of the customs and the people of that country and answered questions. Sgt. Dawdy, a graduate of the local high school, is home because of the critical illness of his mother, Mrs. Lewis Dawdy, Sr. who is hospitalized.

Mrs. Dale Brant entertained Sunday with a birthday dinner at their home honoring her husband whose birthday occurred on Tuesday, May 24.

Present besides Mr. and Mrs. Brant and son, Steven, were the following other relatives: Mr. and Mrs. Dean Bushnell, Eldred; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Newton and daughter, Susan, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Mackey and Mrs. C. C. Van Doren.

Sunday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Hopkins were Mr. and Mrs. J. Kennedy Kincaid, Athens; Mr. and Mrs. Perce Funk, Litchfield; Miss Florence Prindle, Springfield; Mrs. Juanita Prindle and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Seely, White Hall. The group had attended funeral services for Mrs. Maude Baker in White Hall.

Pupils from the Patterson eighth grade visited the local high school Monday, and were taken on a tour of inspection by members of the student body.

Attending funeral services for Mrs. Caroline Atkinson, Bowling Green, Mo., Saturday, who died Thursday, were the following relatives from Roodhouse: Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Smith, Miss Catherine James, Fred Smith and daughter, Miss Mildred Smith, Mrs. Mabel Haverfield.

Sunday night dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Hallock, Hillview, were Mr. and Mrs. Ross Manning and family. The Hallocks reside on the Bishop Springs Farm.

Mrs. Homer Graham, Kansas City, Mo., spent the weekend in the home of her son, James E. Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones and family, St. Louis, Mo., visited in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jones, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Scott and family, Chicago, are visiting his brother, George Scott, and family.

Mrs. Lida Thomas is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Earl Petefish, Jacksonville, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Dill left Sunday for Chicago where on Monday they met his son, Arthur Dill, wife and daughter, who were en route to California from their home in Philadelphia, Pa.

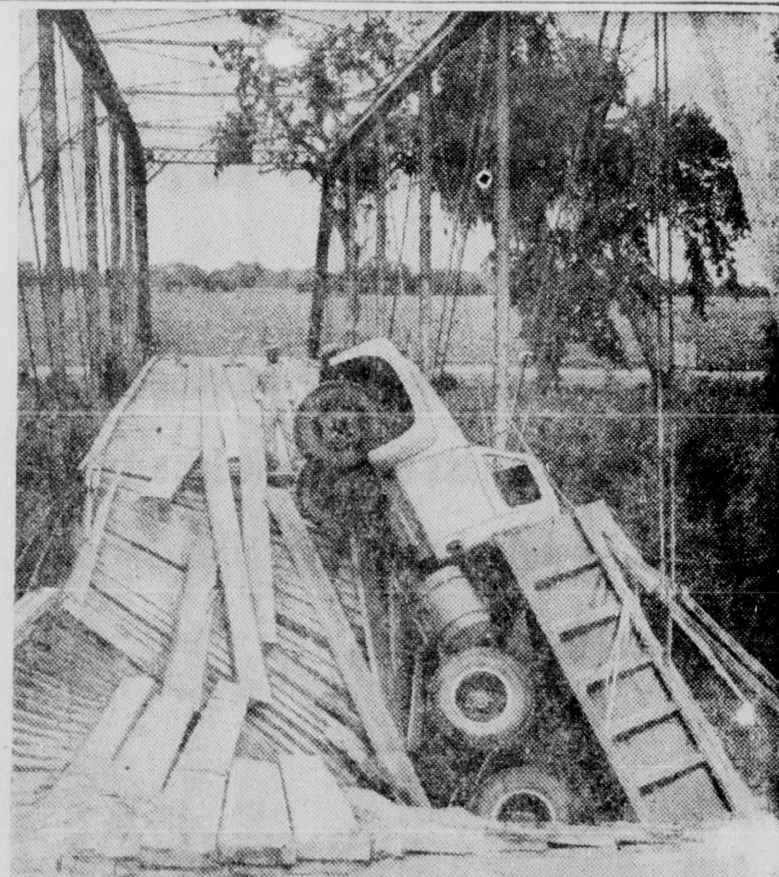

Mrs. V. J. Allen spent Sunday with her friend, Mrs. Gladys Krebaum, Girard, and the two ladies drove to Springfield in the afternoon to visit former friends.

Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil McCracken were her brother, Glenn Witty and wife, Patterson; and her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cunningham, Winchester, a daughter, Miss Eck Cunningham, Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bartlett drove to Alton Thursday where they visited relatives and he attended a father and son banquet with his son.

Sharon Clark, who suffered injuries in an auto accident recently, has returned home from Passavant hospital, Jacksonville where she had been taken for observation and treatment.

Mrs. Josie McReynolds has returned. Our Saviour's hospital, where she underwent surgery some time ago.

OOPS!—This four-ton truck, loaded with 15 tons of sand, tried to cross a 150-foot bridge over the Smoky Hill River near Salina, Kan. It didn't make it. The bridge fell in. So did the truck. Here owner-driver Roger Cline, unhurt, surveys the plight of his eight-week-old vehicle.

BARBARA BLODGETT TO GRADUATE FROM LAKE FOREST COLLEGE

Word has been received that Miss Barbara Blodgett, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Darrell Blodgett of Wheaton, formerly of Jacksonville, will graduate on June 11 from the Lake Forest College. Dr. Blodgett is a former superintendent of Jacksonville schools.

Miss Blodgett was honored in being chosen recently to take part in Lake Forest College's second annual program, "This I Believe." The eleven outstanding seniors chosen will state their beliefs and personal philosophies, ideals and observations in various fields. Miss Blodgett is a history major and a graduate of the Jacksonville high school. She was recently given the Chi Omega award for outstanding work in the field of social sciences.

News In Stamps

History is often related through stamps. Below are four new stamps marking events which will someday find their way into the world's history books.

HAILS TREATY—This special Austrian stamp commemorates the recent signing of the treaty ending occupation of Austria. The two-schilling stamp bears the 1945 coat-of-arms series with an overprint of "Staatsvertrag 1955" (State Treaty 1955). Stamp is bluish-gray.

FARM PLAN—This stamp is one of a new series of Indian stamps which illustrate efforts to build a new India. The 3-pies stamp above shows an American-made Caterpillar D4 tractor pulling a plow. It highlights the government's Five-Year plan in agriculture.

PROGRESS—France is issuing this stamp to symbolize progress of the nation's electrically powered railroads. Dark brown and gray-blue, the 12-franc stamp will be released June 4.

TEXTILE STAMP—This stamp has been issued by Belgium in connection with the Second International Textile Exposition in Brussels, June 25 to July 10. Stamp is white on a light-brown background.

CARROLLTON

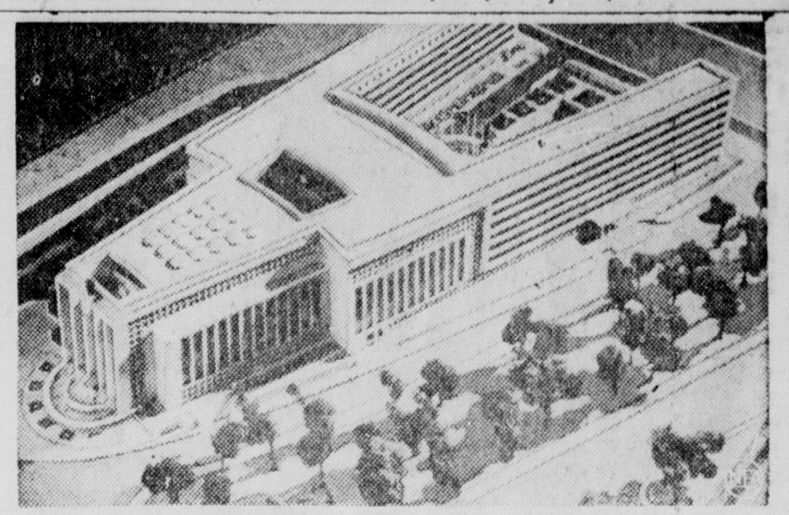

CARROLLTON — Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kimbro spent Sunday afternoon and evening in Beardstown where they were guests of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. William McCoy.

Mrs. Arthur Baker has received word that her nephew, Robert Mouser, has returned to his home in Alton after spending three years in Germany. Mouser, who has received his discharge from the armed forces, is a former Carrollton resident and attended school here.

Mrs. W. F. Kincaide, who has been receiving treatment at Boyd Memorial hospital for a hip fracture, was discharged Monday and is convalescing at her home here.

Board Of Review
In Session June 7

CARROLLTON — The Greene County Board of Review will open for their summer session June 7 after which time complaints regarding taxes may be filed with them for investigation.

Orville Stout, the chairman of the Greene County Board of Supervisors, is the chairman of the Review Board with Mrs. Ward Burton of Wrights as the clerk. The other two members, both of them new, are Vernon Koehm and J. F. Hubbard. Hubbard is a former sheriff and former treasurer of Greene County. The appointments were made by County Judge Jack Alfeld.

SOON A REALITY—This is the preliminary sketch of the proposed United Church Center to be located in New York City. The 17-story structure, which will occupy an entire block, will be the national headquarters of Protestant and Orthodox church groups in the United States. Planned for 20 years, the $14,000,000 building will house the offices of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. and a number of its 30-member Communions, their boards and agencies.

Memorial Day Services Planned For Roodhouse

ROODHOUSE—Geo. L. Berry, Commander of Roodhouse Post American Legion, has announced that Memorial Day services will be held at 11:00 a.m. at the flag pole in front of the mausoleum at Fernwood Cemetery Monday, May 30. All veterans, regardless of affiliation with any organization, are urged to take part.

The group will meet in front of Rimbey's Greenhouses at 10:30 a.m. and then proceed to the cemetery. The Roodhouse concert band will take part in the ceremony and Rev. H. L. Janvin will deliver the address.

Annual "Skip day" was observed Friday by the seniors of Roodhouse community high school. Thirty seniors and their sponsors, Mrs. G. L. Fischback and Jasper Hood, left early that morning in a school bus for Pere Marquette Park at Grafton, where the day was spent boating and sightseeing. A sack lunch was served at the noon hour.

4-H Club
Members of the 4-H club, Reginae, attended the all-day "keeping fit" meeting held at the Carrollton park, Saturday, where they received complete health examinations, and spent the remainder of the day at play. A sack lunch was served at the noon hour. All of the county clubs were represented. Mary Ellen Jouett And Donald Lee Orrill Wed

CARROLLTON—The local Baptist church was the scene Sunday May 22, of the wedding of Miss Mary Ellen Jouett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Jouett of the city and Donald Lee Orrill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Orrill of Roodhouse.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 2:30 p.m. by the Rev. Ralph Coleman, pastor of the Christian church in Roodhouse. The soloist as Miss Nancy Reeves of this city. Her selections were "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." The organ accompaniment was played by Miss Nita Ford.

The bride, who entered the church with her father, wore a gown of white nylon lace and tulle over taffeta. The tight fitting bodice was fashioned with a high neckline lined in sequins. The long sleeves tapered to points over the hands. The bouffant skirt was worn over hoops. The finger tip veil was secured to coronet of roses and sequins. She carried a white Bible on which a bouquet of peppermint carnations and white ribbon streamers had been arranged.

The maid of honor was Miss Anna Jean Stansbury of Roodhouse, cousin of the bride. The bridesmaid was Miss Sandra Carter of this city. Miss Stansbury wore a floor length gown of pale green nylon over taffeta. The strapless bodice was complimented with a jacket and headpiece corresponding in color to her dress. The full skirt was worn over hoops. She carried a bridal heart of yellow roses and white ribbon streamers.

Little Miss Kathy Jouett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Jouett of Wood River and a niece of the bride, was the flower girl. Her floor length dress was of white nylon tulle over taffeta. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations. The best man was James Houseman. The groomsmen were James Klinglee, Ushers were William Orrill, of Roodhouse, uncle of the groom, Truman Jouett, Wood River, brother of the bride, and Ronald Ash of Wood River, a cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Jouett chose for her daughter's wedding a tan print pongee dress with white accessories and a corsage of yellow pompoms. Mrs. Orrill, mother of the groom, wore navy blue with white accessories. Her corsage was of red roses. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the dining room of the church with Mrs. G. K. Hutchens in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Herbert Harr in charge of the gift table. Mrs. J. F. Hubbard was at the punch bowl assisted by Mrs. Dewey Staples. Mrs. Anna Hubbard, Mrs. Elmer Short, Mrs. Louis Bishop, Mrs. Iva Martin and Mrs. Robert Tucker.

The wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Henry Borlin. Pink and white garden flowers were used in both the church decorations and also in the reception room.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Orrill left on a wedding trip to the Ozarks. When she left, Mrs. Orrill was wearing a pink linen suit with black accessories and the flowers from her wedding bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Carrollton Community High School class of 1954 and studied at Illinois State Normal University at Normal. She was employed in the office of Oil Industries prior to her marriage.

Mr. Orrill is a graduate of the Roodhouse High School class of 1953 and studied at Eureka College before entering the U. S. Air Force six months ago. He has completed his training at the Kelly Air Force Base at San Antonio, Texas, and upon the expiration of his present leave he will be assigned to overseas duty. Mrs. Orrill does not plan to accompany him overseas at the present time.

Loami Girl And Donald Walker Of Waverly Wed

WAVERLY — The marriage of Miss Janet Rowden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hardin Rowden of Loami and Private Donald E. Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Walker of Waverly, was solemnized Saturday afternoon, May 21, in the Methodist church at Waverly.

Rev. Ralph Fitch, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate families of the couple.

Proceeding the service, Miss Matie Deatherage, organist, played "Because" and "Always" and the traditional wedding marches.

The attendants were Mrs. Kenneth Walker of Chicago, sister-in-law of the bridegroom and William Rowden, brother of the bride.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. For her wedding she wore a chapel length white organdy gown. A shoulder length veil was secured to a cap trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet, centered with an orchid.

The matron of honor wore a ballerina length gown of wedgewood blue lace, and carried a bouquet of daisies in pastel colors.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple departed for Fort Belvoir, Va., where the bridegroom is stationed, and where they will make their home.

The bride is a graduate of Waverly high school with the class of 1953, and has been employed in the office of the Saneamo Electric Company in Springfield.

The bridegroom graduated from Waverly high school in 1951 and attended the University of Illinois, Navy Pier, Chicago, and at Champaign-Urbana. Prior to entering the service he was employed at Allis Chalmers, Springfield.

19 Of Nation's Top Women Golfers Begin Wolverine Open Today

By JOE FALLS
DETROIT (AP)—Nineteen of the nation's top professional golfers—25 hopeful amateurs—tee off Thursday in the $5,000 Wolverine Ladies Open, but the event has been dimmed by the withdrawal of the great Babe Didrikson Zaharias and four other name players. The tournament—a 72-hole medal play affair which concludes Sunday—is the first stop on the ladies' PGA summer tour. Missing the initial test at the Forest Lake Country Club, in addition to the Babe, are Patty Berg, Louise Suggs, Jackie

Saturday Special National Golf Day For Blind Players

NEW YORK, May 24.—The largest contingent of blind golfers ever to play at one time will participate on a special National Golf Day for blind golfers on Saturday, May 28th. Approximately 150 blind golfers plus sighted helpers are expected to play their National Golf Day rounds on the 28th in some 30 cities and 15 states. It was announced by Doctor S. B. Van Wageningen, Secretary of the United States Blind Golfers Association.

"We are delighted with the expected size of the turnout," Dr. Van Wageningen said. "Many of these will be trying golf therapy for the first time. We are hopeful that we can turn a high percentage of blind Golf Day players into regular golf enthusiasts."

The special Blind Golfers date, serving as nationwide kickoff to the week leading up to the Champions round at the Olympic Club, San Francisco on June 4th, is an innovation this year. Blind golf through the U. S. Blind Golfers Association and the Middle Atlantic Blind Golf Association have been beneficiaries of Golf Day for the past two years. Dr. Van Wageningen explained. The two organizations suggested a special Golf Day for the blind to LIFE Magazine and the PGA. National Golf Day sponsors, as a way of highlighting the useful therapy of golf to the blind and the important role of National Golf Day in the development of blind golf.

The special kickoff date for blind golfers also points up the fact that National Golf Day rounds may be played by the public during the entire week through June 4th. Local club pros are in charge of participation. Individuals may play as many rounds as they wish in competition against Ed Furek and Babe Zaharias, men's and women's champions. Entry fees are one dollar a round. Winners receive a special medal indicating they beat the champions.

Magazine Rates Moore No. 1 Contender For Heavy Crown

NEW YORK (AP)—If there's a young boxer coming along who some day will knock the heavyweight crown from Rocky Marciano's head, he hasn't yet proved that he's a serious contender.

Pointing up the absence of young challengers, Ring Magazine Wednesday named 39-year-old Archie Moore, the light heavyweight champion, as the No. 1 contender for heavyweight honors. The only comparatively young fighters listed among the first ten were Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, 23, and Johnny Holman, 27.

The reshuffling of familiar names in the monthly ring ratings resulted from two important heavyweight bouts in May. First Moore took a 15-round decision over Cuba's Nino Valdes, then listed as No. 1 contender. After that Marciano belted England's pudge Don Cockell loose from his No. 2 rating.

Bob Baker of Pittsburgh moved up into the No. 2 spot with Cockell third and Valdes fourth. Jackson, who has been making something of a comeback recently after an abrupt Pung and Betsy Rawls. Their absence, however, offers a good opportunity for some of the younger players to take a crack at the first prize of $1,000.

Outstanding among the newcomers is 19-year-old Mickey Wright of San Diego. She's the youngest of the touring pros, and reputedly is a longer driver than Babe Zaharias.

The Babe reported from Texas that ill health forced her cancellation. The same holds true for the reticent Jackie Pung.

Among the leading competitors in this first women's pro tournament ever held in Detroit are Betty Jameson, former national open and amateur champion from San Diego; Mary Lena Falk, 1953 national amateur champion from Thomasville, Ga.; the Bauer sisters, Marlene and Alice, from Sarasota, Fla.; Peggy Kirk Bell, Detroit Curtis Cup veteran; Joyce Ziske of Milwaukee; Betty Hicks of Manhattan Beach, Calif.; and Beverly Hanson, another former national amateur champion from India, Calif.

They will play 18 holes a day over the 6,415-yard, par 36-39-75 Forest Lake layout.

Orioles, Red Sox Split Twin Bill

BALTIMORE (AP)—Rookie Ike Delock of Boston stopped Baltimore on five hits Wednesday night as the Red Sox won the second game of a twin-night doubleheader 5-2. The Orioles had taken the first contest 6-2 with a 12-hit barrage.

Delock coasted to his fourth victory as the Sox teed off on Don Johnson and Lou Kretlow to build up a 5-0 lead in the first four innings.

The middleweight ratings also underwent a change as Charley Humez of France moved into the top contender's spot with Rocky Castellani of Cleveland second. Joe Giardello of Philadelphia, idle because of his difficulties with the law, was dropped from first to third.

Other major changes in the ratings saw Frankie Ryff of New York move into second place among the lightweight contenders. Ramon Fuentes of Los Angeles take third among the welters and Virgil Atkins of St. Louis vault into fifth place in the same division. Atkins, previously unranked, knocked out Ronnie Delanie and Joe Miceli in his last two fights.

Phil Drake Captures British Derby Before Some 300,000 People

By JOHN FARROW
EPSOM, England (AP)—French invader Phil Drake dashed into the lead in the final 50 yards Wednesday and brought victory to pretty Suzy Volterra of Paris in the 176th running of the famed English Derby.

A crowd estimated at 300,000, including Queen Elizabeth and the royal family, watched as the 100-8 chance in the betting flashed across the finish a length and a half in front of the Irish longshot, Panasilipper.

Panaslipper, who went off at 100-1, was the 11-4 favorite in the field of 23 starters. Panasilipper is owned by Joseph McGrath, managing director of the Irish Hospitals Trust, which runs a big sweepstakes on the derby.

Phil Drake is the fourth French colt since the end of World War II to capture the great mile and one half turf classic, and Mrs. Volterra is only the third woman in the history of the racing dating to 1789 to own a winner. She is the widow of Leon Volterra, Paris movie magnate.

There were two American owned colts in the race, run in perfect sunny weather, but both finished out of the money. They were Bryn, a French colt owned by Robert Strassburger, formerly of Norristown, Pa., and a longtime resident of France, and Solarium, a British colt. Solarium is owned by Gerald Albertini, heir to an American railroad fortune, now residing near London.

"This is the happiest day of my life," said Mrs. Volterra after congratulating jockey Freddie Palmer.

The queen, England's No. 1 racing fan and horse owner, had no runner in the Derby this time.

First money was $52,645.60. The

Larry Tharp Captures IC Decathlon

Springfield senior Larry Tharp, a consistent high scorer for the Illinois College varsity track squad, Wednesday afternoon emerged victor in the school's first intramural decathlon—15 track and field events run off during the first three days of the week.

The event, patterned after the ancient Greek contest of the same name, was open to all male students of the school.

Tharp totaled 80 points in the 15 events to edge Ogden Munroe and Bill Horsley. Munroe, a low and high hurdler performer for the varsity, collected 74 1/2 points while Horsley gathered 70 1/2. Ken Vierck, an IC football star, was fourth with 51 points. Fifth place went to Henry Jackson with 40 1/2 points.

Scoring:
1—Larry Tharp 80.
2—Ogden Munroe 74 1/2.
3—Bill Horsley 70 1/2.
4—Ken Vierck 70.
5—Henry Jackson 40 1/2.
6—Ed Harrell 37.
7—Dick Barnes 24.
8—Bob Gueena 22 1/2.
9—Glenn Beemer 22.
10—Paul Williams 18.
11—Kurt Steiner 10.

Big Ten Conference Raises Football Officials Pay, Approves Insurance Plan

By FRITZ HOWELL
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Western Conference Wednesday boosted the fees paid its football officials from $100 to $125 per game, and also approved death and disability insurance for the arbiters.

K. L. (Tug) Wilson, Big Ten commissioner, said the pay boost was the first in several years for the football whistle-blowers, and followed a hike from $65 to $75 granted basketball officials last season.

The insurance plan, for both basketball and football officials, will pay as high as $5,000 in medical bills, and $1,000 in case of death or disability. The plan covers the officials from the time they leave home for a game until they return.

Wilson said a schedule of regional telecasts for Big Ten football issued in New York some weeks ago was just an "illustrative" slate and that the games listed were not certain to be handled by CBS.

"No definite schedule of regional games has been set up," said Bill Reed, assistant to the commissioner. "The schedule, to be announced by CBS, will not be made public until after Labor Day, and then may be made on a week-to-week basis to assure the best possible game being televised."

"The CBS has the right to pick any game it desires, so long as it does not conflict with the NCAA regulations. No price for the regional broadcasts has been announced, although I'll admit the $75,000 per game figure is a close

FAN BREEZES

BY BILL MERRIS

"I'll give up the sport which has the best prospects for the next season," was the way Illinois College athletic director Al Miller announced the new coach at IC would handle basketball. A Hilltop coaching position is open and the Blue-boy athletic director has indicated he will keep football and baseball and turn basketball and track over to the new man.

Miller has been at the local school some 11 years and the past two seasons he has been carrying the entire coaching load himself with the exception of this spring when Al Rosenberger took over the track team. The Blueboy mentor had always said when the time came for him to give up the sport to a new man he would turn over the sport in which the prospects for the next season looked the best.

Coach Al feels IC should have a good chance to win the Prairie College Conference in basketball next year and maybe go even farther. The past two years IC cage quint has compiled an overall record of 28-14 and with performers such as Jim Bonds returning from the service, the outlook for next season is bright. The unusual thing about these two years is that no player has been lost through graduation. In fact, there will be only one senior next year.

The football picture isn't quite so bright. It's the same story as it is with most small colleges— not enough depth. With last year's boys returning and a few more showing up next fall, the grid picture could very well change. IC has the kind of situation where three or four more good players could make a fair small college team into a fine club.

There are plenty of rumors going around as to who the new coach will be but as yet the job is still wide open.

Phillies Take Two From Giants; 8-3 And 5-2

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Robin Roberts, Murry Dickson and Johnny Meyer tossed the New York Giants out of second place in the National League Wednesday night as the Philadelphia Phillies swept a twin night twin bill, 8-3 and 5-2. Roberts won his sixth of the year against three losses by limiting the Giants to five hits in the opener while Dickson and Meyer turned in a combined eight hitter in the nightcap.

The double loss put the world champion Giants a full game in back of the Chicago Cubs, who whipped the St. Louis Cardinals twice Wednesday 1-0 and 3-1. The Phils bunched four of their second game runs in the first inning to drive starter Johnny Antonelli to the showers. Richie Ashburn and Peanuts Lowrey singled, then—with one out—Del Ennis hit his ninth homer of the year. A walk, Stan Lopata's single and Bobby Morgan's double brought home the fourth run. Marv Grissom took over for Antonelli and quelled the rally.

Marv Blaylock reached first when hit by a pitch of reliever Don Liddle, who came in to start the Phils' fifth. Then Dickson hit a towering fly ball that Davey Williams dropped and Blaylock scored.

Willie Mays broke the New York scoring drought with a leadoff homer in the seventh. Singles by Whitey Lockman and Ray Katt, plus a walk, loaded the bags and Williams' groundout brought Lockman home.

First Game:

Lefty Blanks Redbirds 1-0 In Opener, Rush Wins Second Tilt 3-1

CHICAGO (AP)—Paul Minner b Elliott 1 0 0 0 6
blanked the St. Louis Cardinals 1-0 on a four-hit job and Bob Rush followed with a yield of only two hits—one a ninth inning homer by Rip Repulski—for a 3-1 decision in the second game as the Chicago Cubs swept a doubleheader Wednesday.

Rush gained his third win of the year as Brooks Lawrence, kayoed before retiring a single batter, suffered his third setback.

The victories were Chicago's fifth and sixth in the last seven games. St. Louis dropped its fourth and fifth decisions in six games.

Rookie outfielder Bill Virdon singled with one out in the first off Rush and reached third on catcher Harry Chitt's throwing error attempting to pick him off first.

Thereafter Rush did not allow another hit until Repulski's homer, his seventh of the season, reached the left field catwalk in the ninth. The big right hander walked three and struck out eight.

Chicago gave Rush a 2-0 lead in the first inning when Eddie Miksis poled a leadoff homer, his second of the year, and the second run was the result of Gene Baker's triple and rookie Bob Speake's double.

The third Cub run was scored in the third by Randy Jackson, who singled, Ernie Banks' double and Chitt's sacrifice fly enabled Jackson to complete the journey.

Minner, inactive since May 6 and without a victory since April 22, gained his third win in beating rookie Larry Jackson.

Speake's homer in the sixth inning of the first game was the only run of the contest.

Holly Mims Whips Charley Green In 10-Round Go

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Holly Mims of Washington, fourth-ranking middleweight, Wednesday night stood off a late rally by Charley Green of Los Angeles to win a unanimous 10-round decision in their nationally-televised boxing bout at the St. Louis Arena. Mims weighed 154 1/2, Green 160.

Mims floored Green for an eight-count in the first round but the West Coast fighter blasted Mims through the ropes with a hard right in the sixth.

But the over-eager Green couldn't follow up the advantage. He rushed in and wrestled Mims to the floor but failed to land any immediate punches to follow up his advantage.

Judge Fred Connell scored the fight for Mims 53-47. Judge Howard Hess had it 54-46 and Referee Dick Young saw it 52-48 for Mims. The Associated Press had Green ahead 51-49.

It was the 40th victory in 57 bouts for Mims who has lost 12 and fought five draws.

Green, a stablemate of Middleweight Champion Bobo Olson, dropped his 13th decision in 54 fights. It was the first appearance for Green outside of California.

Berra Bats, Turley Hurls Yanks To 6-2 Win Over Nats

NEW YORK (AP)—Larry (Yogi) Berra, ousted from the cleanup spot Wednesday, took it out on the Washington Senators by blasting a home run with two mates aboard the first time he came to bat and lead the New York Yankees to a 6-2 triumph.

Berra's blow, the slugging catcher's ninth of the season, was all Bob Turley needed to register his eighth victory of the season against a lone defeat. The right-handed fireballer permitted only three hits and struck out six, to boost his season's total to a league-leading 78 strikeouts, one more than Cleveland's Herb Score.

The Senators, limited to one hit through the first five innings, trailed 4-0 as they came to bat in the sixth. Juan Delis singled to left and when Elston Howard let the ball get by him, the fleet-footed Cuban reached third on the error. Eddie Fitz Gerald then followed with a low liner to center. Mickey Mantle attempted and missed a shoestring catch and by the time he had recovered the ball in deep center, Fitz Gerald had an inside-the-park homer and the Yankees' margin had been cut to 4-2.

Left-hander Maury McDermott proved no puzzle to the league leaders. By the time he retired the first batter, the Yankees had tallied three times.

Speedway Changes 500-Mile Relief Driver Rules

By DALE BURGESS
INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—A new Indianapolis Motor Speedway rule letting rookies drive relief in the 500-mile race May 30 reflected Wednesday the high mortality rate among auto racers.

In the past a first-year man as the big track has been able to compete only by qualifying a car in the time trials.

He can drive relief next Monday even if his only experience is the driver's test at speeds up to 125 miles an hour.

A shortage of aggressive, experienced drivers showed up in the qualifications the last two weekends. Eight rookies made the line-up and seven of them had never even driven a practice lap at the Speedway before this year.

A look at the lineup of the 1951 Memorial Day race, only four years ago, shows why good drivers are getting scarce. Eleven of the 33 starters that year are dead. So is Manuel Ayulo, who drove relief for Jack McGrath. Ayulo was killed in warmup run at the Speedway last week.

Lee Wallard, the 1951 winner, was burned severely in a racing accident shortly after the Indianapolis race and hasn't started since. He has recovered, however, and may drive relief Monday.

Here's what happened to some of the other 1951 starters:
Mike Nazaruk, second in the race, killed this year in a race at Langhorne, Pa.

Bobby Ball, fifth, fatally injured in 1953 at the Gardena, Calif., track.
Bill Schindler, 13th, killed in 1952 in a race at Allentown, Pa.

Carl Scarborough, 18th, died of heat exhaustion in the 1953 Indianapolis race.

Bill Mackey, 19th, killed on the Winchester, Ind., track in 1951.

Cecil Green, 22nd, killed at Winchester in 1951.

Chet Miller, 25th, killed in a practice run at the Indianapolis Speedway in 1953.

Wall Brown, 26th, killed in a Williams Grove, Pa., race in 1951.

Johnny McDowell, 29th, killed in a Milwaukee race in 1952.

Joe James, 30th, killed on a Sam Jose, Calif., track in 1952.

Mac Hellings, 33rd, killed in a plane crash in 1951.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market made it two advances in a row Wednesday with expanded business a feature of the rise.

Volume came to 2,100,000 shares. That is well below the daily average so far this year, but the significant fact is the striking increase from Tuesday's 1,650,000 shares. That was the low point for the past seven months.

Railroads and aircrafts were the strong divisions with aluminum issues posting increases that went to around 5 points at the best. The list as a whole had frequent plus signs of 1 to 3 points. Losses were small and scattered.

Brokers pointed out that aircrafts are in the spotlight because of the federal government's emphasis on airpower in defense spending now. And the government also is looking into the current supply of aluminum with particular attention to the question of shortages.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up 90 cents at $163.80. It was ahead 40 cents Tuesday. The average now is only $3 away from April 26 record.

Two of the three components of the average was higher today—industrials up 80 cents and railroads up $1.70 while utilities remained unchanged.

There were 1,183 individual issues traded of which 654 advanced and 316 declined. Sixty stocks hit new highs for the year and 11 new lows were recorded.

The American Stock Exchange was mostly higher on volume of 980,000 shares as compared with 880,000 shares traded Tuesday.

New York Bond Market

NEW YORK (AP)—The corporate bond market moved irregularly higher Wednesday while U. S. government bonds remained fairly steady.

"Big Board" volume increased to $3,810,000 par value from $3,620,000 Tuesday as selected railroads and high-grade issues pulled the corporate list higher. Industrials and utilities fluctuated narrowly.

Intermediate Treasury obligations eased slightly in late after the counter dealings. But long-term governments were steady. The 30-year 3 1/4 rose 2-32 at 106 26-32 bid while the 2 1/8 of 1963 lost an equal fraction at 98 23-32 bid.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

CHICAGO (AP)—Heavier receipts than expected helped to drop butcher and sows prices 25 to 50 cents Wednesday. The top was down 75 cents. Salable receipts totaled 12,000 head, 3,500 above expectations.

Butchers scaling less than 230 pounds lost the full 50 cents, moving at $17.35 to $18.50, the top. Most 230 to 260 pounds were taken at $16.75 to $17.50 and 260 to 300 pounds at $15.75 to $16.75. Sows sold from $11.50 to $12.50.

Steers sold steady to $1.00 higher, high good and better making the largest gains. Heifers advanced 25 to mostly 50 cents. Salable receipts totaled 11,000 head.

Top on steers reached 26.00. Choice to low prime brought $22.50 to $25.00 and good to low choice $18.00 to $22.00. Heifers topped at $24.00. Most good to high choice kinds sold for $19.00 to $23.50.

Cows held fully steady at $11.50 to $14.50 for utility and commercial and $9.00 to $12.50 for canners and cullers. Vealers were steady to $1.00 lower at $21.00 to $25.00 and $12.00 to $20.00 for utility and commercial.

Salable sheep receipts totaled 2,000. In a slow market lambs were steady to weak. Good and choice shorn lambs moved at $18.00 to $19.50 and choice native spring lambs at $23.00 to $24.00.

WHEAT HOLDS GAINS AS OTHER GRAINS LOSE NEAR CLOSE

By WILLIAM FERRIS
CHICAGO (AP)—Wheat held onto small gains on the Board of Trade Wednesday while a late selling squall sent everything else under the previous close.

At one time wheat's gains ran to around 1 1/2 cents and rye was ahead almost as much. But by the finish wheat's gains were limited to small fractions.

Wheat closed 3/4¢ higher, corn unchanged to 1/2¢ lower, oats 1/4¢ lower, rye 1/4¢ lower, soybeans 1/2-1 1/4¢ lower and lard 5 to 10 cents a hundred pounds lower.

Buying in wheat was attributed in part to firming prices for cash wheat in some southwestern markets. There also was some buying in anticipation of a pick up in flour business and exports.

Traders noted too, that Agriculture Secretary Benson said he would not lower price supports on the 1955 crop to 75 per cent of parity. He can place them between 75 and 90 per cent of parity.

Corn was never able to continue with its little upturn of the previous session. Trading was dull, lacking any inspiration in the news. A private estimate placed the Argentine corn crop at 138 million bushels compared with 185 million produced last year.

Mild hedging pressure held back soybeans. Cash receipts at Chicago were down a little from the previous day, totaling 26 cars. But cash bean meal eased and again was quoted at $52.00 a ton, equaling its low for the year.

The theme of study this year will be, "Heroes of the Cross." All children of the community are urged to attend.

Hofmann Greenhouses open evenings Thurs., Fri., Sat.

State Legislature

Reapportionment
SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—A bill for the state's first reapportionment in 54 years forged ahead Wednesday in the Illinois House. It was advanced to passage stage for a decisive vote, probably Thursday.

Bipartisan supporters, including both Republican and Democratic leaders, beat down 15 opposition amendments. One amendment was adopted, affecting the composition of three proposed new Senate districts.

The bill, drafted by Senate and House committees at work since January on the politically hot task, wipes out the existing 51 legislative districts, each electing one senator and three representatives.

To replace them, it draws 58 Senate and 59 separate new House districts. Involved is a shift in control of the House from downstate, which heretofore has dominated both branches, to Cook County.

The single change written into the bill was demanded by Rep. George Brydia (R-Prophetstown), an outspoken foe of reapportionment, who earlier threatened to filibuster against the bill.

The first roll call on his amendment, the 15th to be presented, showed Brydia an apparent loser by one vote, 64-63. However, after an amendment by Rep. Charles K. Willett (R-Dixon) was turned down, Brydia succeeded in having his reconsidered and it carried 86 to 35.

As revised, the bill provides for a new 35th Senate district identical with the existing combined 35th district, consisting of DeKalb, Lee and Whiteside counties.

The proposed 53rd, or Rock Island Senate district, also would be unchanged, except for being renumbered, from the present combined 33rd district, consisting of Rock Island, Mercer and Henderson counties.

A third result would—by shifting out Henderson—leave the proposed new 57th Senate district with just two counties, Knox and Warren.

Brydia said his version preserved county political relationships of long standing, and Rep. Harold Widmer (R-Freepoint) said it would "go a long way to relieve tensions" in the northwest section over remap.

Rep. Arthur Sprague (R-La Grange), chairman of the special House Committee on Remap, spoke against it, saying that if one change was adopted others might follow and place the entire plan in jeopardy.

Of the defeated amendments, the first, offered by Rep. Joseph W. Russell (D-Piper City), came about as close to acceptance as any other, except for Brydia's.

His suggestion for a reshuffle of five counties in the proposed new 38th, 41st and 42nd House districts was rejected by a vote of 81 to 58.

Like most of those who sought to alter the bill, Russell is faced with the likelihood of defeat for reelection because of being thrown together with more than two other incumbents. He is one of five House members who would be required to run from the proposed new 41st district, comprising Livingston, Ford and Kankakee counties.

Rep. Harry Lavery (R-Chicago) was turned down on three amendments, and Reps. W. O. Verhines (R-Vienna) and Pauline Rinaker (R-Carlisle) on two apiece.

Others who failed to obtain changes included Reps. David Peters (D-Decatur), W. K. Kidwell (D-Mattoon), and James Y. Carter, Corneal Davis, Stanley Halick and John G. Fary, all Chicago Democrats.

Sales Tax Bill
A city sales tax bill backed by Gov. Stratton and Mayor Richard Daley of Chicago was approved Wednesday by the Illinois Senate Municipalities Committee.

Over protests of merchants and spokesmen for chambers of commerce and a taxpayers organization, the committee gave the measure a 9 to 4 favorable vote and sent it to the Senate floor. Republicans cast the negative votes.

The bill would allow cities to levy a half cent sales tax without referendum.

Among those who testified against the legislation were Fred Goertitz, manager of the Chicago Retail Merchants Assn.; George Lawrence of the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce; C. W. Gessler, executive vice president of Lord's Department Store in

FIND HANDKERCHIEF OF MISSING GIRL

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP)—Weary and worried searchers found a handkerchief that belonged to missing 8-year-old Jeanne Singleton Wednesday but only faint hopes were expressed that the child will be found alive.

The pink silk kerchief was spotted hanging from a branch of a tree in a wildlife preserve about three miles from where the girl was last seen Monday afternoon. Strands of hair similar to Jeanne's were found in a knot tied in the cloth which the little girl wore on her head.

Police said the kerchief was dry. Heavy rain fell in the area last night.

Voicing a growing fear, Kalamazoo Police Capt. Riley Stewart said: "I think the chances that she is dead are greater than those that she is alive."

Jeanne, a slight, brown-haired child who has a crippled right leg, disappeared on her way home from school Monday.

Woman Admirers Protest Arrest Of Faith Healer

CHICAGO (AP)—Two confidence detail cops sent to arrest a "faith healer" ran into the protests and fists of eight women admirers Wednesday.

Lt. Ralph Petacque and Detective Sam Nolan said the small donnybrook began when they entered "Little Davie's" parlor to arrest David Schafer, 38. A woman complained he had taken her portable radio as payment for advice.

The officers said the pummeling—both by fists and handbags—started as they sought to grab Schafer. Nolan said he received a cut on the ear as someone protested: "Can't you see this is a man of God. You can't take him away."

Petacque and Nolan finally collided with Schafer and took him to the station on an open charge. The woman complainant charged she gave Schafer a pawn ticket for her radio in lieu of cash payment.

But, she said, he redeemed the ticket and took the radio while refusing her cash payment of the ticket in return for the pawned radio.

The officers later quoted Schafer as saying he was a faker and no more divine than an old shoe. Schafer said he sold a "cure-all" concoction of mineral oil and perfume in small bottles for $35.

Facts, Figures On Britain's Election Today

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Facts and figures on Thursday's British election:

To be elected—630 members of the House of Commons. The party winning the most districts organizes the government. Each district votes only on its two to four candidates.

Candidates—624 Conservatives and members of allied parties, 620 Laborites and allies, 110 Liberals, 38 Independents and small party members, 17 Communists.

Who can vote—34,852,471 Britons over 21.

Main contenders—the Conservatives under Sir Winston Churchill and Prime Minister Eden have been in power since 1951. The Laborites under Clement Attlee ruled from 1945 to 1951.

Term of office—normally five years, but the party in power can call an election earlier. The Conservatives, with more than a year to go in their term, called today's election in an effort to increase their 17-seat majority in Parliament and gain a new five-year tenure.

Issues—on the home front, mainly property and the high cost of living. In international affairs, Britain's position in an H-bomb civilization.

Woman Claims Bundle Of Money Found May 2

WAUKEGAN, Ill. (AP)—A middle-aged woman Wednesday claimed a bundle of money—listed as "more than 40 thousand dollars"—found May 2 in Waukegan.

The claimant is Mrs. Jane P. Siskind, manager of a book store in Waukegan. She declined to provide any details. She referred questioners to her lawyer, Frank Daly, who also is Waukegan's city attorney.

Daly was not available for comment immediately.

The money reportedly was found near Mrs. Siskind's family home on South Genesee street.

Albert W. Sorenson, 34, construction worker who lives near Antioch, found the money. He said he found it "outside" and "away from" any building. He turned it over to State's Atty. Robert C. Nelson May 12, and filed proceedings to retrieve it if nobody successfully claimed it.

Mrs. Siskind's claim, in form of a legal written demand, was brought to Nelson by a constable. Nelson, in reply, said she would have to prove ownership in court, and provide identification of the currency.

Meanwhile, the money is cached in the First National Bank in Antioch.

Capt. John Brake of the Waukegan police said he had made a thorough investigation of Mrs. Siskind's claim. He said he is satisfied that "the money at one time was, and probably still does, belong to her family."

JAPAN PAYS ALLIED SOLDIERS
LONDON (AP)—The Japanese government Wednesday handed over $12,500,000 to compensate Allied soldiers who "suffered undue hardship" while prisoners of war, the British Foreign Office said.

The payment was made to the International Committee of the Red Cross. Main claimants are Britain, the Netherlands, Pakistan, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and the Philippines, a spokesman said.

No claim has so far been submitted by the United States, said the spokesman. He added that the U. S. government had paid compensation to its own claimants out of seized Japanese assets.

The Legion plans no other formal observance of Memorial Day.

11 Persons Killed In North Africa

PARIS (AP)—Eleven persons have been killed in less than 24 hours in troubled French North Africa amid scenes of burning, pillage and other sabotage.

In the new surge of violence between the authorities and nationalist extremists the French debated whether to use a hard or soft policy to curb uprisings.

Most of the trouble centered in Algeria, politically a part of France itself. Four Algerians were reported slain Wednesday in the village of Beni-Moulou, between the Aurès and Nememcha mountains.

Another report from Algiers said rebels ambushed a scout patrol coming near Tebessa Tuesday, killing 2 Frenchmen and 4 Arabs and capturing 26 other Arabs.

The rebels burned the convoy's vehicles and made off with its arms and prisoners. Two companies of riflemen and two machine gun squads pursued the attackers.

Other violence reported included the burning of small railroad stations, pillage of farms and sabotage of vineyards by nationalist terrorists.

Sign Language Informs Youth Of Probation

A 24 year old deaf young man who is also mute was admitted to probation Wednesday morning by Judge L. E. Wilhite in county court, where he pleaded guilty several weeks ago to a charge of burglary.

The defendant, Truman Helmig, 851 Goltz avenue, was called before the court where an interpreter passed the words of Judge Wilhite on to the defendant in sign language.

The court asked the defendant if he would abide by terms of probation, to which Helmig replied that he would be a "good boy." The probationary period will be three years, with no drinking of alcoholic liquor.

William H. Kerr, consultant for the handicapped, Illinois Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, appeared as interpreter. Kerr told the court a study of Helmig's case has been made, and that he believed the young man can be rehabilitated.

Helmig was accused of breaking into the Mentler and Cities Service stations last Nov. 4.

State's Attorney Albert Hall and Public Defender Robert Bradley were in court when Helmig was placed under strict probationary terms.

The Deaf Alumni Association awards for excellence in English composition were won by Joanne Whiting and Patricia Naffziger; the Illinois Deaf Association awards for general meritorious scholarship went to Helen Lane and Richard Thrash, and the American Legion and Legion Auxiliary awards went to Richard Thrash and Joyce Zimmerman, respectively.

Pittsfield Child Still Unconscious After Accident

PITTSFIELD, Ill. — The life of two and one-half year old Teresa Irving of this city continued to hang in balance Wednesday at Springfield Memorial hospital, where she is under treatment for head injuries as the result of an accident on a Pittsfield street.

Two fractures of the skull and an injury at the base of the brain have been detected by surgeons, who said the full extent of the injuries may not be determined for several days.

Daughter of State's Attorney and Mrs. Brice Irving, the child remained in an unconscious condition Wednesday morning, members of the family reported.

The injury of the little girl occurred about 11 a.m. Monday on North Memorial street near her home.

She had been at Clay Owens grocery near her home and according to reports darted into the street just as Tom Plattner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Plattner, was driving past in his car on his way home from school.

Tom had stopped his car at the grocery to ask a friend Joe Grable if he wanted a ride home. The accident occurred less than 100 feet from that point, indicating that the Plattner car was traveling at a slow rate of speed at that time. Markings on Tom's car indicated that the child ran into the side of the car near the front.

Teresa was with her brother, Brice and sister, Rita and a neighbor friend, Becky Lennox. They had visited the store and were crossing the street to the Irving residence.

She was taken to Illini hospital for examination, and shortly thereafter transferred by ambulance to the hospital at Springfield.

Key Witness In Graft Probe Has Heart Attack

WASHINGTON (AP)—Leon Levy, a key witness in the Senate investigation of alleged graft in uniform procurement for the armed forces, was reported to have suffered a heart attack Wednesday night and was ordered removed to George Washington Hospital here.

The heart attack was described as serious.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A svelte brunette who admitted there was something in the past she wanted to conceal denied Wednesday she tried to shake down Chicago hal-maker Harry Levy for $15,000.

The witness, Mrs. Mella Hort, a former government contract checker, accused two Senate investigations subcommittee staff members of "browbeating" her in an effort to make her give false testimony relating to the alleged 1953 shake-down attempt.

Her voice quivering, she swore aides Robert F. Kennedy and Carmine Bellino badgered her "to the verge of hysteria" when they questioned her last Thursday.

She acknowledged under stern questioning from Chairman McClellan (D-Ark), however, that main reason for her near-hysteria was a fear the inquiry would bring out "some things we haven't revealed," as McClellan put it.

DAVY CROCKETT'S RELATIVES

OKAWVILLE, Ill. (AP)—The current hit record "Davy Crockett" is a special favorite of Mrs. Margie Ree Cohn, an Okawville woman who claims to be a direct descendant of the famed frontier scout.

Mrs. Cohn, whose maiden name was Flowers, says she is a great-great-granddaughter of Davy Crockett and adds: "I am quite sure I can prove it."

A genealogy of the Crockett-Finley-Flowers heirs compiled for the 1938 Texas centennial celebration first led to her being honored as a descendant of the Alamo hero.

Now the mother of a 15-year-old daughter, Linda, Mrs. Cohn says she has known of her relationship to Crockett since girlhood.

Jerseyville Man Breaks Arm Riding In Hillview Rodeo

JERSEYVILLE — William Lewis, an employee of the City of Jerseyville, sustained a broken arm Sunday while participating in a rodeo at Hillview, Ill.

According to reports, Lewis was riding a bucking bronco. The animal threw Lewis and he alighted on his shoulder and arm. The arm was fractured about half way between the elbow and shoulder blade.

Lutheran School Graduation Rites At 8 Tonight

The Salem Lutheran school closing program and graduation exercise will be held Thursday evening, May 26th, at 8 p.m. in the school hall. All the children of the school, including the kindergarten children, will participate in the program.

The program will consist of songs and dances by the kindergarten and the lower grades under the supervision of Miss Laura Schumacher and Miss Jane Koltermann. The upper grades, directed by Mrs. Leon Gierke, will present a historical pageant.

Students who will receive diplomas are Gary Brockhouse, Pat Fohl, Marlene Franklin, Connie Kuhlman and Carole Williams.

Following the graduation exercise, refreshments will be served by a committee consisting of the graduate's mothers.

The school year will end with a closing church service Friday morning, May 27th, at 10 a.m. for all the children, parents, and friends.

Friday afternoon and evening the children and their parents will enjoy a picnic at Nichol's Park.

Jaycees Honor Road-E-O Winners At Dinner May 24

The three winners of the recently sponsored Teen Age Road-E-O, a project of the Jaycees, were guests with their parents, at the regular dinner meeting of the organization held at the Dunlap hotel Tuesday evening.

Sheriff Jack Andrews presented the trophies to G. A. Rexroat, first place; Don Maxwell, second, and Ken Carpenter, third.

President Guy Wilks reported that the Jaycees will sponsor the King Brothers circus to appear on August 13 in Jacksonville. Members voted to sponsor a Junior Tennis Tournament in Jacksonville this summer.

Pat McHatten reported that the plans for the McKinley Rodeo to be held Tuesday, June 14, are progressing well. Carroll Rexroat was elected to the office of state director, at the Tuesday meeting. Jim Rafferty and Harry Emerick received their membership pins and Jim Best was introduced as a guest.

Airman Rawlings, whose wife is the twin sister of Airman Francis, is spending 3 to 6 months duty now in England. His permanent base is Bergstrom A.F.B. in Texas. Mrs. Rawlings is now spending a visit with her parents at Franklin.

Iowa Stolen Car Abandoned On Pittsfield Road

PITTSFIELD—A 1952 Chevrolet car was found abandoned on the Nebo road one mile south of here Saturday night which was identified by officers as belonging to a resident of Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Officers there were contacted and reported that the car had been stolen.

On Sunday morning a window in the concession at the Drive-In theater near Summer Hill was broken and thieves entered taking potato chips and other items of food. Dale Hastings of the vicinity saw the break in and called Pittsfield officers. Sheriff Ray Lyman and city policeman Claud Wilson responded and apprehended two young boys, Marvin Wilson, 16, and Rex E. Fuller, 15, both of Cedar Rapids, eating potato chips at a near by school house. They were brought to the jail here for questioning, and admitted the break in and also the theft of the abandoned car. They were held in jail here for officers from Cedar Rapids who came for them on Tuesday. No charges will be preferred against the boys here as the stolen edibles were of small value.

The current school year will be concluded in the Pittsfield schools this week. Semester examinations were completed on Tuesday and the teachers' picnic will be held on Wednesday. The eighth grade commencement exercises will be held on Thursday night and the last school event of the term will be the graduation exercises to be held on Friday night, May 27, with T. E. Musselman of the Gem City Business College in Quincy delivering the commencement address.

The newly organized Band Boosters Club met at the South school Monday night, with Mrs. Myron Davis, president, in charge. The report of the committee on constitution and by-laws was adopted. Dr. L. J. Litvan, chairman of the ways and means committee, reported on the needs of the band and their instructor, David Brunberg, which amount to more than $2,000, of which the Club will endeavor to raise half, which will be matched by the Board of Education. As their first project it is planned to present a square and round dance on Friday night, June 24. Mrs. Gene Burbridge was named chairman of the membership drive, and will open the drive immediately. The school band will march in the Memorial Day parade next Monday.

The purpose of the Band Boosters' Club is to promote the musical interest of all students of Pittsfield Unit District No. 10.

Name Mrs. Eggenberger New League President

Mrs. Clarence Eggenberger was elected president of the League of Women Voters of Morgan County at the annual meeting of the organization Tuesday evening at the First Presbyterian church.

Elected to serve with her for the next two years are Mrs. E. G. Piggott, first vice president; Mrs. Theodore Pierce, second vice president; Mrs. Willard Pruitt, secretary; Mrs. C. H. Rammelkamp, Mrs. M. M. Blair, Mrs. Joe Patterson Smith, and Mrs. Marjorie Wofford, director; Mrs. Smith, member of the nominating committee from the board and Mrs. Louis Belinson non-board member.

Mrs. Ralph Welles, Mrs. James

Stubblefield and Mrs. John Agger were named directors for one year to complete unexpired terms.

Miss Juanita Coultas, treasurer, presented the budget for the coming year which she and Mrs. C. H. Rammelkamp, finance chairman, had prepared. Miss Coultas also invited those present to attend the Flower Show sponsored by the Morgan County Garden Club to be held at the Youth Center Saturday 4 p.m.-9 p.m. and Sunday 2 noon to 8 p.m.

To Study Housing

A study of county government housing, with emphasis on slum clearance and low-cost housing, and a study of ways and means of including school-year kindergartens in the program of School District No. 117 were the three items adopted for the coming year's program, with the collection and distribution of garbage as a continuing responsibility.

Basic constitutional revision to provide for a coordinated, flexible state fiscal structure, and basic revision of the judicial article to provide for court reorganization and non-partisan selection of the judiciary are the two items adopted by the Illinois League for the next two years' program, according to Mrs. Eggenberger's report of the recent state convention in Champaign.

"Basic revision of our total tax structure is the aim of the first item," Mrs. Eggenberger said. "An effort will be made to present a complete picture of the services our people want and where the money to provide them will come from."

timing responsibilities of the state League which are items to which the League has given sustained attention and upon which it may continue to act.

Mrs. Pierce reported on changes in the state by-laws and on the budget for the biennium, stressing the fact that the local League is one of the state League's strongest financial supporters.

Mrs. Orville Foreman, national board member, Mrs. E. G. Hildner, president of the local League, and Mrs. Marjorie Wofford were also present at the convention but did not make formal reports. The local League was one of the few with a full complement of delegates in attendance.

Jacksonville Booklet

Mrs. Hildner presided at the business meeting which followed a potluck dinner to which a number of guests had been invited to witness the presentation of the booklet, "Presenting Jacksonville, Illinois."

SECTION TWO
Jacksonville Courier, Jacksonville, Ill., May 26, 1955
Jacksonville Journal, Jacksonville, Ill., May 26, 1955

A skit, "The Birth of the Booklet," was presented by four students from Illinois College, Misses Doris Schmiedl, Wilma Dobbs, Jean Lawless and Joan Neuner. It depicted the trials and tribulations of the editorial committee of the booklet during the past year when several years' study culminated in actual publication.

Mrs. Theodore Pierce, chairman, Mrs. E. G. Piggott, Mrs. Joe Patterson Smith, and Mrs. Clarence Eggenberger were members of the committee represented in the skit.

Copies of the booklet were presented to Jewell Mann, superintendent of schools; Ray Miller, president of the Chamber of Commerce; and John Phillips, city clerk. The schools and the Chamber of Commerce have contracted for a large number of the booklets.

and city officials have provided committee members with much of the material presented.

Mayor Ernest Hoagland was unable to be present for the dinner session when he was also presented with a booklet in appreciation of his assistance in assembling it.

Mrs. Louis Belinson, who is in charge of sale and distribution of the booklets, announced that they will be on sale at the news stand or the Thrift Travel Service desk at the Dunlap Hotel.

The American Bible Society distributed 15,391,171 Bibles and parts of Bibles in 1954.

4 Million Gallons Of Water Sold By Waverly

WAVERLY—At a special session of the Waverly City Council Tuesday night at the Public Library, they decided to sell Panhandle water.

Mayor Romang, City Clerk and Alderman Hart, Seiz, Newberry and Whalen met to decide the sale of water to the Panhandle Pipeline

Company to be used by that firm in conducting hydro-pressure tests on their gas lines. The city sold Panhandle 3,000,000 gallons of water last year when the company tested their oldest main which had been in service for more than twenty years. This year the company plans to test a second of their three mains during the summer months, when gas demand is low.

The council voted to sell Panhandle 4,000,000 gallons of water. Under the terms of the agreement the Pipeline company may use the water any time within 120 days. Water used by Panhandle is untreated water drawn directly from the city lake through a special pipeline laid by them and by use of their own pumps.

Memorial Day observance will be Sunday, May 29, instead of May 30, in charge of the Waverly American PITTSFIELD — Twenty-one new members were received into the Pittsfield chapter of the National Honor Society at the annual induction ceremony and dinner held at the Community Center.

To qualify for the National Honor Society the students must maintain a B average all through high school, and excel in character, leadership and service.

Members recently inducted were: Seniors, Helen Winston, Joyce Motley, Richard Jennings, Gail Norton, Mary Ann Forgy; Juniors, Jim Gay, Reg Dunham, Paul Payne, Linda Watson, Nancy Cooper, Norma

Jones, Annie Dammitt, Joyce Card, Doris Norton, Carolyn Keys, Carolyn Capps, Beverley Harris, Linda Claus, Ruth Ann Perrine, and Judy Venable.

Parents of the members were present at the induction ceremony and program. Jack Barber, president of the local chapter was in charge of the ceremony. The program consisted of a vocal solo "Young and Foolish" by Evelyn McAnaney; a piano solo, Beethoven's Sonata op 53, by Carol Claus; flute solo "Tiptoe Through the Tulips" by Linda Watson. Elizabeth McHose was accompanist.

Miss Mary Margaret McGuire and Eldon Pesier, members of the high school faculty, are sponsors of the Society.

Foresters estimate that more than half the growth of saw-timber trees in the United States takes place in the South.

Death Has 3 Lives by Brett Halliday

THE STORY: Suffering from a bullet wound, Jack Bristow seeks refuge in the apartment of Lucy Hamilton, secretary and girl friend of Private Detective Michael Shayne. When he learns Shayne is expected, Bristow threatens the girl.

III
 THE rangy redhead was in a pleasantly relaxed mood when he appeared at the top of the stairs in front of Lucy's door. He sailed his wide-brimmed Panama over her head into the center of the rug and grinned down at her, putting one big hand at each armpit and lifting her from the floor to kiss her lips lightly.

She was flushed and confused when he set her down, trying to distinguish in her own mind between the sudden rush of passion that had drawn her briefly toward Jack Bristow a short time previously and the very real affection she felt for Shayne.

Misinterpreting her blushing confusion, Shayne slid one arm over her shoulders and turned her back into the apartment. "A person would think that was the first time I ever kissed you, Angel. You ought to be used to it by now."

"That's just it, Michael. You've been doing it for years now and I'm beginning to wonder if it means anything to you at all."

She hadn't known she was going to say that. She could have bitten off her tongue after hearing the words if that would have recalled them. Long ago, when she first entered the relationship of secretary and favorite female friend of Michael Shayne, she had sworn to herself that she would accept from him only what he freely offered of himself and would never seek anything more.

She gazed up at him in stricken silence as he stopped abruptly and his arm tightened about her shoulders.

He watched her without speaking and without moving while she leaned forward to set the tray on a low coffee table close to him and then sealed herself on the other side of it.

He lifted the cognac glass with knobby fingers and sipped meditatively for a moment, then said: "Give me a little more time, Lucy. I know I don't deserve it, but I do need it."

She crossed her nice legs and smoothed the shimmering blue hostess gown and replied, "Of course, Michael."

There was the tramp of heavy footsteps in the hall outside, and a loud knock on her door. Shayne lifted busy red brows questioningly at her, and Lucy shrugged her shoulders to indicate she expected no visitors and had no idea who was there.

She got to her feet as a second knock followed the first swiftly, went to the door and opened it a foot to confront a red-faced and uniformed city policeman.

... ..

THERE were others beyond him, she noted, arousing the occupants of the other apartments, and knew instantly why they were there. Panic caused a tight knot in her throat, but she managed to get her words out past the knot calmly: "Yes? What is it, Officer?"

"Sorry to bother you, Ma'm. Is anyone in your apartment with you?"

She clung tightly to the doorframe and the door with both hands while demanding, "Why do you want to know?"

"We're looking for a man," the cop explained impatiently. "Traced him into this apartment house in the last hour and we've got to ask your permission to search your place for him."

"Do you suspect me of harboring a fugitive?" she asked hotly. "No need to get nasty about it. Maybe you are at that." The blue-coated policeman pushed forward with a leer. "If I was on the lam I'd not want a nicer place to hide."

Interpreting The News

By J. M. ROBERTS
AP News Analyst

Time-taking and a deliberate approach to problems are usually considered helpful in international affairs, but this doesn't seem to be entirely true of the projected Big Four conference.

It now appears that the meeting will take place even later than originally expected.

Speculation that detailed arrangements will await the arrival in the United States of Russian Foreign Minister Molotov, who is coming to the United Nations anniversary meeting late next month, have been at least partially confirmed by Secretary Dulles.

Then, presumably, Molotov will have to return to Moscow for consultations in the Russian pattern, which frequently seem interminable. Under these circumstances, the conference seems likely to be delayed beyond the July target date frequently mentioned.

This is not all bad. Aside from providing time for proper consideration of issues and the policies to be applied to them, there is a concrete impact of this period on international relations.

For instance, the best estimates are that Red China will make no overt moves in the Formosa Strait conflict while the conference is pending, lest they interfere with international Communist tactics.

The extended time interval between the suggestions for the conference and its probable convening, however, creates problems for the diplomats as well as time for deliberation.

President Eisenhower made a remark the other day which some might have interpreted as a willingness to consider neutrality for Germany under certain circumstances. That had to be denied, and Secretary Dulles did so Tuesday, very flatly.

It is an example of how the conference participants will be taking policy stands on many issues before they ever get together—public stands which will be very difficult to modify to meet counteroffers or counter-policy from the other side.

Try starching men's handkerchiefs on the corners only. You'll find they stay neater when tucked in a jacket pocket.

HEY—KIDS

How would you like to have this car?

FREE!

It is just like your Dad's car, except smaller.

It runs 70 miles on a gallon of gas, speed up to 15 miles per hour, four wheel brakes, puncture proof tires, ball bearing wheels, automotive steering and seats two children. You may see this car any day at the Walker's City Service Station, Lincoln and Morton Avenues.

HERE'S HOW

Any boy or girl between the ages of 6 and 16 may register. To register you just go to Walker's City Service Gas Station at Morton and Lincoln Friday, May 27th and the Attendant will give you the registration form. You do not have to buy any gas to register.

For every $1.00 your Dad, Relatives or Friends spend at Walker's New Cities Service Station on Lincoln and Morton Avenue for gas, greasings, oil changes, wash job and any other service you get 100 free votes toward winning the Sport Car.

On Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday, May 27, 28, 29 and 30 your votes will count double. 200 votes for each dollar instead of 100 votes.

No employee or members of employees family of The Walker Motor Company, Inc., will be allowed to enter contest.

Each week we will post the names of the boys and girls who have entered the contest at the Station so your friends will know who has entered so they can vote for their choice.

At the end of the contest the boy or girl who has the most votes will get the car ABSOLUTELY FREE.

We are appointing Claude L. Wilson Tax Service, 6 Dunlap Court as Judge of the Contest. His decision will be final.

White Hall Plans For Memorial Day

WHITE HALL — Donald Crossman, Chaplain of American Legion Post No. 70, is in charge of arrangements for the joint Memorial Day services to be held on Monday, May 30, at the White Hall cemetery on Soldiers and Sailors Hill. Members of the Legion, as well as V.F.W. Post No. 7684 and their Auxiliaries, are asked to meet at the Legion Home at 9:15 and the parade will form and leave for the cemetery at 10 o'clock. Rev. Ollie Phillips will be speaker for the services, with others taking part. Colors of all the organizations will be en masse for the march to the cemetery.

Milo Dean was taken to Our Saviour's hospital on Monday night. Mothers of the seventy-eight eighth grade graduates gave the members a party at the Methodist church on Saturday night at 8 o'clock. Games were played and refreshments of sandwiches, punch and cookies were served.

Members of the First Christian church tendered the pastor, Rev. Ruth Carleton and her family, a potluck supper at the church on Sunday night. Raymond Wendell presented Mrs. Carlton with a sizeable check in recognition of her services and she responded, thanking the members for their splendid cooperation during her pastorate in the local church. She and her family will move to Godfrey, Ill., on June 10 where they have purchased a new home.

Members of the W.S.C.S. of the Methodist church went to Pittsfield recently for an officers' training school. They included Rev. and Mrs. James Mahoney, Mrs. Peter Kittel, president of the W.S.C.S. Mrs. Carlos Morrow, Mrs. Marcus McColister and Mrs. Emery Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. William McCarthy, Miss Mina White, Mrs. Sarah Grogdon and Mrs. Mary Schwartz went to Granite City on Friday night where they attended Advance Officers Night of the Eastern Star Chapter of that city.

Russell Dossett has been sent to the Illinois Research hospital, Chicago, for medical care, having been treated at Jacksonville hospitals prior to that time.

V.F.W. Auxiliary to Post No. 7684 held their social meeting at the V.F.W. Home on Monday night with a chicken potluck supper served at 7 o'clock. Committee was composed of Dorothy Walker, Theo Spangenberg, Jane Monroe, Ivamae Dickerson and Marguerite Orten.

A surprise pink and blue shower was tendered Mrs. Elmer Dean Daniel following the supper. Table decorations were in pink and blue with a floral centerpiece in those colors, candles and napkins carrying out the theme. Nut cups were tiny pink and blue paper booties, and the honoree's sister, Mrs. John Gillis, made a beautifully decorated cake in the shape of a baby cradle. Mrs. Daniel received many lovely gifts. Final plans were made for the hospital party at Jacksonville Veterans hospital on June 1, with Wanda Edwards, hospital chairman, in charge. Refreshments of cup cakes and ice cream will be served to 50 veterans and bingo with prizes played.

Plans were also made for the color bearers to participate in the Memorial Day service on May 30 at the White Hall cemetery.

Guests at the party were Mrs. James Monroe, Dianne Fisher, Pansy McCarthy, and Mrs. Dean. Fair came later in the evening.

MacMURRAY GRADUATING SENIORS EXHIBIT ART

An exhibition of work by the six graduating senior art majors at MacMurray College is now on display at Pfeiffer Library during regular library hours and will remain there not later than commencement day, June 5. The public is cordially invited. The exhibit represents four years of work by Beth Buckborough, Gloria Brown, Dorothy Graves, Barbara Lawson, Virginia Morton, and Ann Poulos and is a requirement of every senior graduating in fine arts. The show occupies two floors in the library. The downstairs gallery contains design work, consisting of problems in perspective, interior and exterior, cover designs, rendering problems, collages, publications, and posters. The perspective problems are realistic and exacting, while some of the posters and collages are decorative and quite abstract. The other works in the downstairs gallery are pastel and charcoal drawings of such subject matter as still-lives, landscapes, and figures. Here, the students have combined discipline and knowledge with their own imaginations and personal interpretations of what was actually seen. Water color paintings which are colorful and diversified, and a few block prints are also on display. Original work in ceramics and ceramic and copper jewelry illustrate various methods of working and different concepts of purpose, both decorative and functional. The large second floor gallery contains oil paintings, ceramic portraits, sculpture in metal and wood, and textile designs for both wearing apparel and draperies. The paintings are colorful and diverse in both subject matter and style, and range in size from four feet by six feet to twelve by fourteen inches. There are figures, portraits, landscapes, and still-lives among the realistic and abstract paintings, and some brilliantly colored designs done in a totally non-objective manner. Surface interest varies from heavily textured plaster to smooth, with even the illusion of texture purposefully omitted. The public is urged to see the exhibition, the largest of its kind in many years. Everyone is certain to find something of interest to him, regardless of what area of art he prefers or what style pleases him the most.

FRANKLIN—The American Legion Auxiliary met at the hall Monday evening. There were nine attending and Mrs. Dorothy Ebbrey and Mrs. Ann Dodsworth served as hostesses. After the regular business, they adjourned to the Shamrock for refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Haynes of Anderson, Indiana, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Rolston, last Saturday and Sunday. On Sunday, Mr. Haynes brought his mother, Mrs. Lillian Haynes, out from Jacksonville to spend the day. Mrs. Alma Williamson and daughter, Marsha, of Staunton and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Scott and children were dinner guests on Sunday at the Rolston home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Williamson went to Nokomis Saturday for a visit with his sister, Mrs. Anderson, who celebrated her ninety-third birthday on Sunday.

The Children's Missionary Society of the Methodist church met at the church Sunday morning with an attendance of 15. After special music by Susan Hart and Norma Kay Jewsbury, and the devotion, a very interesting report on "Children in Big Cities" was given by Carolyn Leak.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jewsbury entertained at supper Sunday evening the following: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jewsbury and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hills and son Steven, all of Jacksonville, Ill. attended the baccalaureate service at the Methodist church Sunday evening.

Mr. Albert Jewsbury, who makes his home with his nephew, Clarence Jewsbury and family, had four friends from Jacksonville calling on him Sunday evening. They were Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Govia and Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Kitchen.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Keplinger entertained Sunday in honor of the birthday of his mother, Mrs. M. B. Keplinger. Others attending were Mrs. Keplinger's daughter, Mrs. Winifred Otwell of Carlinville, and her grandson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Keplinger and children of Jacksonville.

The Franklin Lion's Club held its regular meeting at the Shamrock on Monday evening. The president, John Gordon, presided and a good attendance was noted. The speaker of the evening was Robert Falkenburg of Illinois College, who is interested in child problems, talked on "Community Problems." It was "Ladies Night" so the Lions brought their wives.

Mountainair, N.M., has been called the "bean capital of the world."

Greene Co. State's Attorney Husted Addresses Grads

CARROLLTON—State's Attorney Richard Husted of Roodhouse was the guest speaker Sunday evening at the annual Alumni banquet of St. John's high school given in the Knights of Columbus hall and honoring the 1955 graduating class of the school.

Husted's topic was "Lincoln" and he discussed the greatness of the man despite his limited opportunities and stressed the fact that the potentialities for accomplishing great feats lie within each person. The Rt. Rev. Monsignor Michael Enright served as toastmaster.
Mr. Husted is a former Jacksonville resident. His mother is Mrs. Ethel Husted, 750 West Douglas avenue.

Fred C. Kirbach, Jr., was elected president of the St. John's Alumni Association in the business meeting held following the banquet. Mr. Kirbach succeeds Mrs. Leonard Stone. Other officers elected were Mrs. Phillip Daum, vice president; Miss Georgene Schild, secretary; and Walter Schmidt, treasurer. The following committees for 1956 were named: Mrs. Frank Keller and Mrs. Gilbert Jeffrey, menu committee; Mrs. Donald Pranger and Robert Steckel, decorating; Philip Pohlman, entertainment; John Henry Albrecht, hall; and Ben Kanle, reception.
Following the business meeting and program the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing to the music of Hank Pennings orchestra.
Gourmet dessert: Make up a batch of thin French pancakes. Add fresh orange sections to an orange sauce. Heat the rolled pancakes in the sauce just before serving. A little brandy or rum flavoring may be added to the sauce if desired.
Add minced anchovies to a mixture of cream cheese and butter for a delicious filling for party sandwiches.

CELEBRATE SILVER ANNIVERSARY

VIRGINIA—Mr. and Mrs. Myron W. Caldwell of Virginia quietly celebrated their silver wedding anniversary, Tuesday, May 24. Mrs. Caldwell is the former Lois Paschal. They were married at the First Methodist church in Springfield by the Rev. H. L. Steed. They are the parents of two children, a son who died in infancy and a daughter, Mrs. Henry Carls of Virginia.
Mrs. Caldwell is employed as a teacher at the Buick school near Beardstown. Mr. Caldwell is employed by the Cass county highway department and has served in that capacity for the past 31 years.

Tractor In Gear Runs Over Man Making Repairs

JERSEYVILLE — Gus Curran, well known farmer of the Jerseyville vicinity, suffered serious injuries, when he was run over by a tractor at his farm three miles northeast of this city about 11 a.m. Saturday.

According to reports, Curran was engaged in planting corn. He had completed the task of preparing the ground and had hitched the corn planter to the tractor preparatory to starting the planting of corn.
He stopped the tractor which is reported to have been left in gear and engaged in making some adjustment to the mechanism controlling the corn planter from the tractor. While thus engaged, the tractor started, running over Curran before he could get out of the way.

The wheel of the tractor passed over his left hip and shoulder. A Jerseyville youth who was employed helping Curran went to the latter's aid and was directed to call a doctor and an ambulance. Jacoby Brothers ambulance was called and rushed Curran to the Jersey Community hospital where he was given emergency treatment and later removed to St. John's hospital in St. Louis, Mo.
At the time of the accident, Mrs. Curran was in St. Louis, where she went Saturday morning to remain for several days. Curran was for many years engaged in teaching in the schools of Jersey county and recently retired from teaching to devote his entire time to his farming interest.

Add a dash of spice to pastry for apple pie! For a recipe based on two cups of flour, use three-quarters teaspoon nutmeg. If your apples for the pie aren't tart, sprinkle the apples with half a teaspoon of grated lemon rind and a tablespoon of lemon juice.

Judy Wiley Heads Roodhouse Girls Rainbow Assembly

ROODHOUSE—Miss Judy Wiley was installed Sunday afternoon, May 22, as worthy adviser of the Roodhouse Assembly 42 Order of Rainbow for Girls, together with the elective and appointive officers.
Mr. and Mrs. Austin Wiley, parents of the new officer, were escorted to the east, where they were introduced by the new worthy adviser and presented flowers by her monies were Don Pruitt, David Coker, Terry Turner and Charles Young. The nine o'clock interpellation was given by the DeMolays. Mrs. James Bandy was installed as the mother adviser.

Following the public installation punch and homemade cookies were served with the new worthy adviser presiding at the beautifully appointed table, assisted by the mothers of the Rainbow girls.
If you want a fine-flavored pot of tea, use water that is boiling furiously. Water that's "very hot" won't do!
